Express Selves As Delighted With Varied Attractions Of S. A. Valley

Fifty-six men and women farmers from fourteen states in the Union today traversed Orange county, visiting the various sections representative of the diversified farming of the "small-est big county" on earth.

They were members of the Santa Fe's special farmers' train which left Chicago on November 9. They arrived here at 5:45 this morning and at 8 o'clock assembled at the city hall, whence they departed in automobiles half an hour later for a tour of the county.

They went direct to the sugar factory of the Santa Ana Sugar Company, where they were shown every courtesy by the management and given an opportunity to inspect the operation of converting big ugly beets into the prettiest and sweetest of sweets.

Scenery Enraptured
Passing from the beet lands to citrus orchards they were enraptured by the beautiful scenes unfolded as the machines sped over the paved roads through Tustin, Hewes Park, El Modena, Villa Park, Olive and Orange. From the latter point they were whirled to the Garden Grove section, where they had a glimpse of citrus and agricultural culture at one, and the same time, coming back and passing through the beautiful streets of Santa Ana, and then to Anaheim, Placentia and Fullerton, thence on to the oil fields, which produce millions of dollars each year.

It is safe to say that in no community which they will visit will they find a greater diversity of products than in this county. They were not slow to observe this feature and commented on it freely during the ride.

Look for Investments
"Our party is made up of farmers who have done well financially in their home states, and are looking for investments in a milder climate," said L. F. Bacon of Chicago, representing the Santa Fe's industrial department, in charge of the train. "The excursion was not worked up. These people had planned to come to California this winter, and as they all happened to be coming at the same time, we handled them as a special party. Many parties of this kind will come over the Santa Fe to California in the next few months, attracted by the advertising our company is giving the state."

In conversation with a reporter for the Register, Ralph O. Teeter of Waterville, Pa., said: "I think I voice the sentiment of our entire party in saying that we are highly pleased with this part of California, and we are especially impressed with the hospitality extended to us by the citizens of Santa Ana, which is appreciated very much, indeed. We are enjoying our trip immensely."

Editor With Party
J. F. Jarrell of Topeka, editor of the "Earth," the Santa Fe's official paper, is with the party. He is collecting information about the Santa Ana district for publication in the "Earth," which circulates among people who make inquiries about opportunities in California and other Santa Fe states. If 8 Hour Law Dies, Wilson Will Find Substitute Believe Brotherhoods

CLEVELAND, O., Nov. 17.—Confident that should the Adamson eight-hour law fail, President Wilson will provide another measure which will insure the trainmen the eight-hour day, heads of the various brotherhoods today scouted the possibility of a general strike in January.

Warren Stone said that if the Adamson law is knocked out the trainmen will look to President Wilson for an effective substitute.
Possibilities that the strike vote taken last summer would hold good for a strike in January loomed today. Brotherhood officials said that this question will have to be determined at a meeting in Washington on Monday.

News of a possible further conference between railroad heads and employees, coming from Washington, preceded a statement from the brotherhood heads. This is believed to indicate a willingness on the part of the brotherhoods for a further consideration of the eight-hour law.

LABOR PUTS BAN ON FORCED STRIKE PARLEYS

BALTIMORE, Nov. 17.—Delegates to the American Federation of Labor in convention here today unanimously endorsed an executive council report which condemned all proposed compulsory arbitration of plans under which either a strike or a lockout is declared before federal investigation has been completed.

The Canadian arbitration plan was suggested to President Wilson as a solution of the railroad crisis when the strike was threatened recently.

A resolution asking for a commission to investigate the eight-hour law was adopted without debate. The convention will probably launch a movement to help newspapers

WILSON THANKSGIVING NUNCIO ASKS AID FOR EUROPE WAR-STRICKEN

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Calling upon America to "contribute abundant means for the relief of those living in the belligerent nations upon whom the curse and terror of war have so piteously fallen," President Wilson today issued his Thanksgiving proclamation. November 30 is the date set for Thanksgiving Day.

The President's proclamation follows:
"I, Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, do hereby appoint Thursday, the thirtieth of November, as a day of national thanksgiving and prayer and urge and advise the people to resort to places of worship on that day to render thanks to the Almighty God for the blessings of peace and unbroken prosperity which He has bestowed upon our beloved country in such untimely measure."

"I also suggest and urge that it is our duty on this day of peace and abundance to think with deep sympathy of the peoples of the world upon whom the curse and terror of war has so piteously fallen, and contribute out of our abundant means to the relief of their suffering."

throughout the country in one of its early sessions. This help would naturally be indirect as the first aim of the federation is to help its own members. The cost of news print paper, it was pointed out, has been advanced in price since the first of the year from 100 per cent to nearly 300 per cent. In some instances, and this condition has brought about the reduction of the number of employees in departments under the jurisdiction of the International Printing Trades Association and all have been asked to urge an immediate and thorough investigation by the Department of Justice through federal grand juries in the larger cities of the United States for the purpose of obtaining evidence of alleged illegal conspiracies.

SOUTH PACIFIC ISLES IN FOR BIG SPLASH; COLONEL TO VISIT 'EM

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Although the Fijis and Polynesians of the Samoan group do not know it yet, their reputation of being in for somewhat of a splash next February because T. R. is going to visit them. It is understood that the trips are to constitute the Colonel's vacation after the campaign labors he undertook in the interest of Hughes.

WOMEN DECLARE TEA AGENTS IN SELLING PLAN USE DECEIT

Jewel Company Solicitors In Seeking Trade Give False Impression, Alleged

In the opinion of some Santa Ana women who have given orders to solicitors for the Jewel Tea Company, the solicitors have practiced deception.

According to several housewives, orders are taken for delivery later and the solicitor taking the order tells a very different story from the story told by the man who delivers the goods.

The scheme of the company is to induce sales by offering premiums. The first solicitor gives the impression that in order to get the premium it is necessary only to order two pounds of coffee or a certain amount of other goods handled by the company.

A week or ten days after the order is given along comes the delivery man with the premium and order. He is careful to explain to the purchaser that ownership of the premium passes only when goods taking up forty-five coupons have been ordered and paid for. When told that the first man said that the premium went with the order, the deliveryman asserts that it was a misunderstanding on the part of the purchaser or that the solicitor did not understand his business.

Mrs. Warren's Experience
"I was told that if I bought two pounds of coffee I could have a premium," said Mrs. L. A. Warren, 627 South Sycamore, this morning. "I selected a combination aluminum kettle. I told the solicitor that I didn't see how the company could afford to give the premium on such a small order. He said that it was being given as an advertisement. Another man brought the coffee and premium a few days later and when I paid him for the coffee he handed me a sheet of coupons. Explanations followed and I was told that there certainly had been a misunderstanding of the conditions under which the premium was given—that I would have to purchase goods to take up all the coupons before it became my property. Should I buy coffee only I would have to buy 45 pounds to get the kettle, which, in my opinion, is worth much more than $1. The first man told me the kettle was valued at 45 cents; the second said the first meant 45 coupons instead of 45 cents."

Signed No Contract
"I signed no contract of any kind. It looks to me like the scheme is to deliver the premium and after it has been used the company will either demand cash payment at a price greatly in excess of the real worth of the article or force the holder to purchase goods until the coupons are exhausted."

"When a representative of the company calls with my second order, which will be in a week or ten days, I will return the premium and close my dealings with the company—if I can. And I believe I can, for if return of the premium is refused, I will simply quit ordering and they can take the premium or leave it."

Mrs. Stone, 315 Fruit street, tells a similar experience, except that she was informed by the second representative who called on her that she did not have to carry out the agreement if she did not choose to.

District Manager Talks
V. T. Gilliam, district manager for Southern California of the Jewel Tea Company, was in the city today investigating the situation which has developed here. He is emphatic in his statement that the company does not sanction any misrepresentation of the proposition it has to offer inducing patronage.

"I believe that there has been a misunderstanding by some of our patrons rather than a misrepresentation," said Gilliam this afternoon. "Our experience has been that many patrons have failed to grasp the offer on its first presentation no matter how careful the solicitor has been in explaining every detail. In proportion to the volume of business we have done here the few complaints which have been reported is strong indication that the whole matter has developed through misunderstanding. There has been and will be no complaint from the majority of those who have given orders."

Has Money-Back Guarantee
"The Jewel Tea Company comes to the consuming public with a plan of doing business that is extremely fair to the customer and as such needs no misrepresentation to further its business and welcomes the opportunity to explain fully its profit-sharing plan and its money-back guarantee-if-not-satisfied method of selling Jewel products. This company has for sixteen years advanced premium articles of merit to the consuming public from Maine to California with the first purchase of Jewel coffee and in so doing asks no contract of the consumer—the premium article bears a coupon value

ESCORT TUG SACRIFICES SELF TO FOIL MYSTERY PLOT TO WRECK U-TRADER

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 17.—A report was received at Plum Island today that a strange submarine with a gun mounted on its deck had been sighted proceeding toward Midway, Conn.

NEW LONDON, Nov. 17.—The attempted dash to sea by the submarine Deutschland ended early today in a collision between the submersible and her escorting tug in which four members of the crew of the tug were drowned. The Deutschland put back to her pier at 5 a. m. and work was immediately begun to learn the extent of the damage to the sub-merchantman.

The collision occurred in the treacherous waters between Fishers and Little Gull Islands.

The tug Scott, Jr., escorting, attempted to cut across the bow of the submarine which was steaming at twelve knots an hour.

The craft collided with a splitting crash. A great hole was torn in the Scott's side. The tug broke in two and sank in three minutes, giving the crew no chance to reach the life-boats.

Four sailors it is believed went down with Captain Gurney.

Capt. Hirsch, an official of the Eastern Forwarding Company, the Deutschland's agents, who was aboard the tug, also fell into the water. Sailors from the Deutschland leaped into the water and saved him.

The Deutschland came back on her own steam. It is believed that she was not seriously damaged.

Later in the morning a report was circulated that a mysterious motor boat had tried to ram the Deutschland and that in attempting to protect the submarine the tug was swung directly in the path of the undersea freighter. No confirmation of this was obtained at the Deutschland pier.

The Deutschland was running on the surface at the time of the accident. While there was no heavy sea the current was running strong, according to the crew of the tug who assisted the escort.

Because of the inky darkness the Deutschland's lookout did not see the Scott, Jr. quickly enough to sound an alarm.

All lights that had not been extinguished were shaded to make the Deutschland's escape easier. This was an added difficulty to keeping distance between the boats.

$2,500,000 Cargo Aboard
Activity about the sub-sea freighter began at midnight. The barriers which had concealed the craft were let down and at 1:30 the tugs arrived on the scene and one began to tow the submarine down the Thames.

It was estimated that the Deutschland's cargo, mostly rubber, nickel, zinc and copper, was worth $2,500,000. Valuable diplomatic correspondence as well as mails sent by merchants who availed themselves of the United States' official permission for the U-trader to carry mails to Germany was also aboard the submarine.

Mystery Man Nabbed
A mysterious stranger was captured several hours before the departure of the Deutschland. He is said to have had a quantity of gunpowder in his possession as well as acid. He made his way inside the diver's stockade along with other men who were delivering supplies to the submarine. He was captured at the point of a revolver. He was not arrested, owing to the desire of Captain Koenig to keep the occurrence from becoming known.

The submarine was more closely guarded than ever as the hour for her departure neared. Streams of water from fire hoses were played on the over-curious.

The powerful searchlight of the United States cruiser Columbia, in the Thames, was played up and down the harbor. This, it was believed, was for the purpose of frustrating any attempts that might have been made to interfere with the submarine's departure.

$18,000,000 DAMAGE SUIT FILED BY MOVIE FIRMS IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Suits were filed this afternoon for damages aggregating $18,000,000 under the triple damages section of the Sherman anti-trust law against Motion Picture Patents Company, General Film and others. The petitioners include a group of so-called "independents" in the movie field.

BERLIN ACKNOWLEDGES RECEIPT OF PROTEST FROM U. S. ON BELGIANS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—Germany has formally acknowledged the receipt of the government's protest against the transportation of Belgians to Germany, the State Department today announced.

Gen. Haig Scores Further Advances Against Foes On Ancre Brook

LONDON, Nov. 17.—More progress for the British Saloniki expedition was today announced in an official statement. Barkli has been occupied, the report said, and the enemy has been driven from the villages of Prosenik and Kuilli.

ROME, Nov. 17.—A Saloniki wireless message today reported that the Serbians took the towns of Kenali and Mesozioni in advancing on Monastir.

MONASTIR FALL EXPECTED IN THREE DAYS

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The fall of Monastir within three days today was confidently predicted with the receipt of fresh news that more progress had been made by the French-Serbian and Italian-Russian forces, now fighting in snow and sleet.

The fighting in its roughest elements may be described, as four allied armies, working as a unit, have swung twice in flanking movements of gigantic magnitude and have now perfected a vise-like grip in the neighborhood of Monastir. General Sarrail refused to be drawn into attacking the Bulgarians south of Monastir, the defenses of which had been pronounced impregnable, but, according to reports, forced retirements without a frontal attack and through a threatened envelopment.

GERMANS HURL FOES BACK NEAR BEAUCOURT

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—The repulse of British infantry attacks near Beaucourt and artillery engagements on both sides of the Somme, were today reported officially.

HIGH PRICES OF FOOD LAID TO BIG EXPORTS

Meat Shipments From America Gain 150 Per Cent Since Outbreak of War

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—With an increase of 150 per cent in exports of meats since the outbreak of the war and with a constantly greater proportion of grain crops leaving, America is assuming an even greater share of the burden of feeding stricken Europe.

This information came in the wake of short crops given by government officials today as one of the foremost reasons for the high prices of food-stuffs.

During the first eight months of this year ending in September, the United States shipped abroad more than $200,000,000 worth of meats and dairy products. This presages a total exportation of these products for a year of nearly a third of a billion dollars.

During the same eight months prior to 1914 before the war these exports totaled not quite $80,000,000.

Even with the season usually poor, crops of the United States have contributed a greater share of grain this year than any time during the war or before. Exportation of six major grains has doubled since 1914.

Shipments of vegetables abroad have jumped by leaps and bounds. The American bean has been also called upon to do her bit. Against the exportation of $2,000,000 during the first eight months of 1914, the United States shipped $3,500,000 this year during the same period.

39 BELGIANS SLAIN BY ALLIES IN AERO RAID, SAYS BERLIN

BERLIN, Nov. 17.—An allied air raid on Zebrugge resulted in the death of thirty-nine Belgians, it was today officially announced.

FINAL TALLY ON CAL. VOTE HELD UP BY L. A.

Nation Must Wait Until Monday For Result As Difficulty Arises

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 17.—The nation will not know how California voted in the presidential election until Monday at least and possibly not until later. This delay is caused over the Los Angeles county board of supervisors' failure to reach a solution of the difficulty in precinct 338, a difficulty in which three votes are involved.

The board voted to take the matter under advisement until Monday.

No figures of the official count in Los Angeles county from which Hughes' gain will depend will not be available until that time. The figures will only be announced then if the mix-up in precinct 338 is settled. This precinct on tally showed 273 votes were cast when only 270 votes had been registered.

WILSON CAL PLURALITY TO BE 3750, ESTIMATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—President Wilson's plurality in California will be approximately 3750 votes when the official count of the presidential ballots in this state is completed. This was the estimate made this afternoon on the basis of official returns to the United Press from all but three of the 58 counties in the state. The estimates are that Hughes probably will gain the other three.

At noon all counties except Alameda, Los Angeles and San Francisco had completed their official count.

The United Press tabulations on returns from fifty-three counties gave Hughes a total of 212,397 and Wilson 229,334. A large Hughes majority is expected in Los Angeles county.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 17.—Slight changes in the returns from Hennepin county, of which Minneapolis is the county seat, late this afternoon cut Hughes' lead to 439.

When told that the first man said that the premium went with the order, the deliveryman asserts that it was a misunderstanding on the part of the purchaser or that the solicitor did not understand his business.

Mrs. Warren's Experience

"I was told that if I bought two pounds of coffee I could have a premium," said Mrs. L. A. Warren, 627 South Sycamore, this morning. "I selected a combination aluminum kettle. I told the solicitor that I didn't see how the company could afford to give the premium on such a small order. He said it was being given as an advertisement. Another man brought the coffee and premium a few days later and when I paid him for the coffee he handed me a sheet of coupons. Explanations followed and I was told that there certainly had been a misunderstanding of the conditions under which the premium was given—that I would have to purchase goods to take up all the coupons before it became my property. Should I buy coffee only I would have to buy 45 pounds to get the kettle, which, in my opinion, is worth more than $1. The first man told me the kettle was valued at 45 cents; the second said the first meant 45 coupons instead of 45 cents.

Signed No Contract

"I signed no contract of any kind. It looks to me like the scheme is to deliver the premium and after it has been used the company will either demand cash payment at a price greatly in excess of the real worth of the article or force the holder to purchase goods until the coupons are exhausted.

"When a representative of the company calls with my second order, which will be in a week or ten days, I will return the premium and close my dealings with the company—if I can. And I believe I can, for if return of the premium is refused, I will simply quit ordering and they can take the premium or leave it."

Mrs. Stone, 315 Fruit street, tells a similar experience, except that she was informed by the second representative who called on her that she did not have to carry out the agreement if she did not choose to.

District Manager Talks

V. T. Gilliam, district manager for Southern California of the Jewel Tea Company, was in the city today investigating the situation which has developed here. He is emphatic in his statement that the company does not sanction any misrepresentation of the proposition it has to offer inducing patronage.

"I believe that there has been a misunderstanding by some of our patrons rather than a misrepresentation," said Gilliam this afternoon. "Our experience has been that many patrons have failed to grasp the offer on its first presentation no matter how careful the solicitor has been in explaining every detail. In proportion to the volume of business we have done here the few complaints which have been reported is strong indication that the whole matter has developed through misunderstanding. There has been no misrepresentation of the offer."

Has Money-Back Guarantee

"The Jewel Tea Company comes to the consuming public with a plan of doing business that is extremely fair to the customer and as such needs no misrepresentation to further its business and welcomes the opportunity to explain fully its profit-sharing plan and its money-back guarantee if not satisfied method of selling Jewel products. This company has for sixteen years advanced premium articles of merit to the consuming public from Maine to California with the first purchase of Jewel coffee and in so doing asks no contract of the consumer—the premium article bears a coupon value

ESCORT TUG SACRIFICES
SELF TO FOIL MYSTERY
PLOT TO WRECK U-TRADER

NEW LONDON, Conn., Nov. 17.—A report was received at Plum Island today that a strange submarine with a gun mounted on its deck had been sighted proceeding toward Midway, Conn.

NEW LONDON, Nov. 17.—The attempted dash to sea by the submarine Deutschland ended early today in a collision between the submersible and her escorting tug in which four members of the crew of the tug were drowned. The Deutschland put back to her pier at 5 a. m. and work was immediately begun to learn the extent of the damage to the sub-merchantman.

The collision occurred in the treacherous waters between Fishers and Little Gull Islands.

The tug Scott, Jr., escorting, attempted to cut across the bow of the submarine which was steaming at twelve knots an hour.

The craft collided with a splitting crash. A great hole was torn in the Scott's side. The tug broke in two and sank in three minutes, giving the crew no chance to reach the life-boats.

Four sailors it is believed went down with Captain Gurney.

Capt. Hirsch, an official of the Eastern Forwarding Company, the Deutschland's agents, who was aboard the tug, also fell into the water. Sailors from the Deutschland leaped into the water and saved him.

The Deutschland came back on her own steam. It is believed that she was not seriously damaged.

PLOT FOILED, REPORT

Later in the morning a report was circulated that a mysterious motor boat had tried to ram the Deutschland and that in attempting to protect the submarine the tug was swung directly in the path of the undersea freighter.

No confirmation of this was obtained at the Deutschland pier.

The Deutschland was running on the surface at the time of the accident. While there was no heavy sea the current was running strong, according to the crew of the tug who assisted the escort.

Because of the inky darkness the Deutschland's lookout did not see the Scott, Jr. quickly enough to sound an alarm.

All lights that had not been extinguished were shaded to make the Deutschland's escape easier. This was an added difficulty to keeping distance between the boats.

Activity about the sub-sea freighter began at midnight. The barriers which had concealed the craft were let down and at 1:30 the tugs arrived on the scene and one began to tow the submarine down the Thames.

It was estimated that the Deutschland's cargo, mostly rubber, nickel, zinc and copper, was worth $2,500,000. Valuable diplomatic correspondence as well as mails sent by merchants who availed themselves of the United States' official permission for the U-trader to carry mails to Germany was also aboard the submarine.

Mystery Man Nabbed

A mysterious stranger was captured several hours before the departure of the Deutschland. He is said to have had a quantity of gunpowder in his possession as well as acid. He made his way inside the diver's stockade along with other men who were delivering supplies to the submarine. He was captured at the point of a revolver. He was not arrested, owing to the desire of Captain Koenig to keep the occurrence from becoming known.

The submarine was more closely guarded than ever as the hour for her departure neared. Streams of water from fire hose were played on the over-curious.

The powerful searchlight of the United States cruiser Columbia, in the Thames, was played up and down the harbor. This, it was believed, was for the purpose of frustrating any attempts that might have been made to interfere with the submarine's departure.

During the first eight months of this year ending in September, the United States shipped abroad more than $200,000,000 worth of meats and dairy products. This presages a total exportation of these products for a year of nearly a third of a billion dollars.

During the same eight months prior to 1914 before the war these exports totaled not quite $80,000,000.

Even with the season usually poor, crops of the United States have contributed a greater share of grain this year than any time during the war or before. Exportation of six major grains has doubled since 1914.

Shipments of vegetables abroad have jumped by leaps and bounds.

The American has been also called upon to do her bit. Against the exportation of $2,000,000 during the first eight months of 1914, the United States shipped $3,500,000 this year during the same period.

LONDON, Nov. 17.—More progress for the British Saloniki expedition was today announced in an official statement. Barkli has been occupied, the report said, and the enemy has been driven from the villages of Prosenik and Kuoli.

ROME, Nov. 17.—A Saloniki wireless message today reported that the Serbians took the towns of Kenali and Mesozoli in advancing on Monastir.

MONASTIR FALL EXPECTED
IN THREE DAYS

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The fall of Monastir within three days today was confidently predicted with the receipt of fresh news that more progress had been made by the French-Serbian and Italian-Russian forces, now fighting in snow and sleet.

The fighting in its roughest elements may be described, as four allied armies, working as a unit, have swung twice in flanking movements of gigantic magnitude and have now perfected a vise-like grip in the neighborhood of Monastir. General Sarrail refused to be drawn into attacking the Bulgarians south of Monastir, the defenses of which had been pronounced impregnable, but, according to reports, forced retreats without a frontal attack and through a threatened envelopment.

Meat Shipments From Amer-

Outbreak of War

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—With an increase of 150 per cent in exports of meats since the outbreak of the war and with a constantly greater proportion of grain crops leaving, America is assuming an even greater share of the burden of feeding stricken Europe.

This information came in the wake of short crops given by government officials today as one of the foremost reasons for the high prices of food-stuffs.

During the first eight months of this year ending in September, the United States shipped abroad more than $200,000,000 worth of meats and dairy products. This presages a total exportation of these products for a year of nearly a third of a billion dollars.

During the same eight months prior to 1914 before the war these exports totaled not quite $80,000,000.

WILSON CAL PLURALITY TO BE 3750, ESTIMATE

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 17.—President Wilson's plurality in California will be approximately 3750 votes when the official count of the presidential ballots in this state is completed. This was the estimate made this afternoon on the basis of official returns to the United Press from all but three of the 58 counties in the state. The estimates are that Hughes probably will gain the other three.

At noon all counties except Alameda, Los Angeles and San Francisco had completed their official count.

The United Press tabulations on returns from fifty-three counties gave Hughes a total of 212,397 and Wilson 229,334. A large Hughes majority is expected in Los Angeles county.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 17.—Slight changes in the returns from Hennepin county, of which Minneapolis is the county seat, late this afternoon cut Hughes' lead to 439.

IS THERE GOING TO BE REAL MUSIC

In Your Home This Christmas?

There is no one so unmusical as to believe that a talking machine produces real music. At best, a talking machine, no matter how much it costs, no matter what artists make records for it, no matter what claims are made for it by its manufacturers, gives only a hollow imitation of the original music.

The New Edison is not a Talking Machine

This new invention of the world's greatest inventor is in no real sense a talking machine. It represents the achievement of Mr. Edison's ambition to produce a musical instrument which re-creates all forms of music so perfectly that the original cannot be distinguished from the Re-Creation.

By hundreds of tests, before hundreds of thousands of music lovers, it has been proved conclusively that when an artist sings—or plays—in comparison with the New Edison's Re-Creation of that artist's performance, it is impossible to distinguish the original from the Re-Creation. The music critics of more than 200 of America's leading newspapers testify to this fact in the columns of their own papers.

We Would Advise You to Order Your "NEW EDISON" NOW

The factory has limited our supply of Re-Creation Edisons and we fear we will not have enough to take care of the Christmas demand. Come in and reserve your "New Edison" now, while our stock is complete.

COUNTY HAS TREES FOR PLANTING UPON COUNTY HIGHWAYS

The Board of Forestry of Orange County has issued the following notice to property owners who have frontages upon county roads:

"The season for planting trees along the highways of the county has commenced, and already a number of ranchers have gone to the county nursery, at the corner of Poinsettia and Vance streets, Santa Ana, for trees to be planted along county roads.

"The County Board of Forestry has a fine assortment of first-class trees at its nursery, and during this winter it is expected that several thousand trees will be planted along the highways by the ranchers. Any rancher can have free whatever trees he needs for planting his frontage. It has been suggested that neighbors talk the matter over and settle upon some variety of tree to be planted along their particular road. The Forestry Department has been very liberal in meeting the suggestions of the ranchers who have specific preferences.

"Any person who desires trees should write to the Board of Forestry, Santa Ana. Appointments to inspect the trees in the nursery can be made by letter or by telephone. The nursery telephone is Santa Ana, 892 Pacific, and the phone of the nursery superintendent, Robert C. Northcross, is Orange 192-W.

"Trees available for distribution for planting on county roads are: 'Acacias—Dealbata, Latifolia, Pinnatifida, Saligna; Cedrus Deodara (Indian Cedar); Casuarina Stricta (Beefwood); Cupressus (Cypress)—Macro-

carpa (Common Monterey); Arizona, Knightiana; Eucalyptus—Crebra, Polyanthema, Rudis, Saligna; Pittosporum Undulatum; Pinus—Halapensis (Jerusalem), Canariensis (Canary Island), Penaster (Seaside); Quercus Agrifolia (Live Oak); Sequoia Semper-virens (Redwood).

GIRLS! HAVE A MASS OF BEAUTIFUL HAIR,
SOFT, GLOSSY, WAVY

25-Cent Bottle Destroys Dandruff and Doubles Beauty of Your Hair

—Within ten minutes after an application of Dandergine you can find not a single trace of dandruff or itching hair and your scalp will not itch, but what will please you most will be after a few weeks' use, when you see new hair, fine and downy at first—yes, but really new hair—growing all over the scalp.

A little dandergine immediately doubles the beauty of your hair. No difference how dull, faded, brittle and scraggy, just moisten a cloth with Dandergine and carefully draw it through your hair, taking one small strand at a time. The effect is amazing—your hair will be light, fluffy and wavy, and have an appearance of abundance; an incomparable lustre, softness and luxuriance.

Get a 25-cent bottle of Knowlton's Dandergine from any drug store or toilet counter, and prove that your hair is as pretty and soft as any—that it has been neglected or injured by careless treatment—that's all—you surely can have beautiful hair and lots of it if you will just try a little Dandergine.—Advertisement.

IS THERE GOING TO BE REAL MUSIC

In Your Home This Christmas?

There is no one so unmusical as to believe that a talking machine produces real music. At best, a talking machine, no matter how much it costs, no matter what artists make records for it, no matter what claims are made for it by its manufacturers, gives only a hollow imitation of the original music.

The New Edison is not a Talking Machine

This new invention of the world's greatest inventor is in no real sense a talking machine. It represents the achievement of Mr. Edison's ambition to produce a musical instrument which recreates all forms of music so perfectly that the original cannot be distinguished from the Recreation. By hundreds of tests, before hundreds of thousands of music lovers, it has been proved conclusively that when an artist sings—or plays—in comparison with the New Edison's Re-Creation of that artist's performance, it is impossible to distinguish the original from the Re-Creation. The music critics of more than 200 of America's leading newspapers testify to this fact in the columns of their own papers.

COUNTY HAS TREES FOR PLANTING UPON COUNTY HIGHWAYS

The Board of Forestry of Orange County has issued the following notice to property owners who have frontages upon county roads:

"The season for planting trees along the highways of the county has commenced, and already a number of ranchers have gone to the county nursery, at the corner of Poinsettia and Vance streets, Santa Ana, for trees to be planted along county roads.

"The County Board of Forestry has a fine assortment of first-class trees at its nursery, and during this winter it is expected that several thousand trees will be planted along the highways by the ranchers. Any rancher can have free whatever trees he needs for planting his frontage. It has been suggested that neighbors talk the matter over and settle upon some variety of tree to be planted along their particular road. The Forestry Department has been very liberal in meeting the suggestions of the ranchers who have specific preferences.

"Any person who desires trees should write to the Board of Forestry, Santa Ana. Appointments to inspect the trees in the nursery can be made by letter or by telephone. The nursery telephone is Santa Ana, 892 Pacific, and the phone of the nursery superintendent, Robert C. Northcross, is Orange 102-W.

"Trees available for distribution for planting on county roads are:

"Acacias—Dealbata, Latifolia, Pyramantha, Saligna; Cedrus Deodara (Indian Cedar); Casuarina Stricta (Beefwood); Cupressus (Cypress)—Macro-

BOY, FINDER OF CHECK, JAILED AS FORGER

High Finance Done By Mexican Youth Leads to His Arrest

Rafael Hurtado, an 18-year-old Mexican, did a little high financing yesterday and today he is in jail with a charge of forgery preferred against him.

Refugio Vega, an employee of the Santa Ana Sugar Company factory received a check for $37.10 day before yesterday. It was drawn on the First National Bank by the sugar company.

Vega missed the check yesterday, presuming he had lost it. Payment was stopped at the bank.

Purchases Goods

It developed that Hurtado presented it, indorsing it in the presence of the clerk. He purchased goods to the amount of $10.52 and received the difference in cash.

In the afternoon Hurtado returned to the Taylor store to buy a pair of socks. He was recognized by the woman clerk who waited on him the first time. Taylor was out. She got word to City Marshal Jernigan and the latter took the lad into custody at the corner of Fourth and Main, where he was waiting for a jitney to Delhi.

Taylor happened along about the time the lad was placed under arrest, and he and City Marshal Jernigan took the lad to Delhi, where they found that he and seven or eight others occupied the same bunk house as did Vega. The youth claimed he found the check. It is the opinion of others that he stole it.

SPLENDID PROGRAM IS ARRANGED FOR FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Tonight is C. W. B. M. night at the First Christian church. A special number by the ladies quartet has been arranged for. This quartet is well and favorably known to Santa Anans. The quartet always pleases and delights. Mr. Millard will sing a solo just before the closing hymn. Those failing to hear him will miss a good deal.

Tonight the sermon will be upon the topic, "The Battle in the Wilderness." A special program is being arranged for next Lord's Day. The sermon in the morning will be "What Must I Believe, What Must I Do, What Must I Be to Be Saved?" Mr. Millard will sing "The Philippian Jailer," for the solo. In the evening the subject will be, "The Gates of Yesterday." The solo will be a song of the same title.

In speaking last evening from the rebuke of Nathan to David Rev. Paul C. Wright drew the lesson that it was easy enough to find a sentiment for all things good and right but it was a more difficult matter to crystallize that sentiment into action; that it is easy to find a large sentiment in favor of things religious, but not so easy to have people make the fine sentiments of the heart the principles of their lives.

He concluded with the thought that continually to turn the sentiment or good away was finally to bring the heart to that condition when it could not be stirred or moved by anything good or fine. The heart becomes calloused and hardened and unresponsive to exalted ideals, he said.

BOY, FINDER OF CHECK, JAILED AS FORGER

High Finance Done By Mexican Youth Leads to His Arrest

Rafael Hurtado, an 18-year-old Mexican, did a little high financing yesterday and today he is in jail with a charge of forgery preferred against him.

Refugio Vega, an employee of the Santa Ana Sugar Company factory received a check for $37.10 day before yesterday. It was drawn on the First National Bank by the sugar company. Vega missed the check yesterday, presuming he had lost it. Payment was stopped at the bank.

The check showed up at the bank yesterday afternoon in the hands of J. W. Taylor of the Taylor dry goods store. The check had been cashed at the store by one of the clerks.

Purchases Goods
It developed that Hurtado presented it, indorsing it in the presence of the clerk. He purchased goods to the amount of $10.52 and received the difference in cash.

In the afternoon Hurtado returned to the Taylor store to buy a pair of socks. He was recognized by the woman clerk who waited on him the first time. Taylor was out. She got word to City Marshal Jernigan and the latter took the lad into custody at the corner of Fourth and Main, where he was waiting for a jitney to Delhi.

Taylor happened along about the time the lad was placed under arrest, and he and City Marshal Jernigan took the lad to Delhi, where they found that he and seven or eight others occupied the same bank house as did Vega. The youth claimed he found the check. It is the opinion of others that he stole it.

SPLENDID PROGRAM IS ARRANGED FOR FIRST CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Tonight is C. W. B. M. night at the First Christian church. A special number by the ladies quartet has been arranged for. This quartet is well and favorably known to Santa Anans. The quartet always pleases and delights. Mr. Millard will sing a solo just before the closing hymn. Those failing to hear him will miss a good deal.

Tonight the sermon will be upon the topic, "The Battle in the Wilderness." A special program is being arranged for next Lord's Day. The sermon in the morning will be "What Must I Believe, What Must I Do, What Must I Be to Be Saved?" Mr. Millard will sing "The Philippian Jailer," for the solo. In the evening the subject will be, "The Gates of Yesterday." The solo will be a song of the same title.

In speaking last evening from the rebuke of Nathan to David Rev. Paul E. Wright drew the lesson that it was easy enough to find a sentiment for all things good and right but it was a more difficult matter to crystallize that sentiment into action; that it is easy to find a large sentiment in favor of things religious, but not so easy to have people make the fine sentiments of the heart the principles of their lives.

He concluded with the thought that continually to turn the sentiment or good away was finally to bring the heart to that condition when it could not be stirred or moved by anything good or fine. The heart becomes calloused and hardened and unresponsive to exalted ideals, he said.

W. S. HART TO BE IN S. A. WITH AL JENNINGS

W. S. Hart, the noted film star, whose creation of a newer and truer type of westerner has made him one of the great photoplay favorites of the day, is to be in Santa Ana Sunday evening. He comes here to attend the Al Jennings revival services at the Spurgeon Memorial M. E. Church South, and will make a short address, introducing Jennings. Hart is a Jennings enthusiast and a keen believer in his uplift work. Hart's work as a photoplayer has never alienated him from the church and it is at his own suggestion that he will be in Santa Ana Sunday evening to help Jennings. Incidentally Hart's appearance on the platform with Jennings Sunday evening is the sequel to one of the most unique incidents in the eventful career of Al Jennings. Hart made Jennings' acquaintance many years ago under most thrilling circumstances.

He went to Muskogee, Okla., to open the Turner Opera House in that city. He came upon what appeared to be a group of cowboys. He was made welcome and invited to partake of the meal the men were having. It was a jolly party, Hart says. As he left he told the men who he was and invited them to attend the performance.

"We don't patronize the arts very much these days," said the little man who appeared to be the leader of the band.

"Why not?" asked Hart, who noticed that the spokesman was a man of some education and apparent refinement under his cowboy guise.

"Well," replied the ostensible cowboy, with a grimace, "my name's 'Slim' and 'Zona' and 'Mex' and 'Elmer.' I guess you must of heard of us."

Hart says he was unnerved for a moment but recovered his composure and offered the man his hand and replied: "Yes, I've heard of you. You're the man they're offering rewards for all over the state. I don't wonder you won't come. But you can depend on me. I'll never give you away." Then he rode off.

He didn't meet Jennings again until last year when the latter came to Los Angeles. Hart was working in the pictures. He looked Jennings up and renewed the acquaintance.

PARENTS RESPONSIBLE?

What makes a delinquent boy or girl?

Are some boys and girls born to go right and others to go wrong, as the sparks to fly upward?

There are some who hold this opinion, and that the "criminal classes" are born with the instinct to commit crime—are criminals by predestination, inevitable wrong doers.

Judge Pinckney of the juvenile court of Chicago, who has personally followed up 25,000 "bad child" cases in his court during the years he has been on the bench, attributes the delinquency of children entirely to parental neglect—not to inefficient schools, nor bad government of cities, nor to the inequality of the laws, nor poverty, nor the temptations of city life, nor to any of the other causes commonly harped on by delinquent parents, but to home neglect of home duties.

There is no law that can correct such a condition," says Capper's Weekly; "it is not a public matter at all, but a private matter. Delinquent youths who later marry become delinquent parents."

According to Judge Pinckney, mothers are not as delinquent as fathers of youths who get into bad ways and into trouble. He recommends thrashing the father when the boy goes wrong.

And Capper's adds: "If the law can touch it at all the most it can do is to insure some penalty upon the negligent parent; but isn't all the trouble automatically brought upon parents by parental neglect penalty enough?"

But are parents always or nearly always to blame for juvenile delinquency? And if so, what ought they to do that they leave undone, or what leave undone that they have done?

The distinguished Chicago judge and the able Topeka editor would render a social service of inestimable value, not to mention the burden they would lift from the hearts of parents, if they would tell us just what parents ought to do to prevent juvenile delinquency.

IT AFFIRMS THE FIRST PLAN

The indications at present are that the Republicans will organize the House of Representatives, or at least that the Democrats will not control it. The actual margin of control may be in the hands of half a dozen Socialists, Progressives, and Independents. The Democrats will still control the Senate by a reduced majority. But the mixed membership of the lower house may not be an evil. It does prove indirectly that the country is not Democratic. The Democratic nominee for President was re-elected by independent votes such as were cast for him in California's San Joaquin Valley.

In one sense the House of Representatives is a truer indication of the popular pulse than the result of the presidential election, because the verdict in the latter must be by states, while in the House it is more directly due to the verdict of populous districts. But in both cases the personal factor and the spirit of independence play a large part, as the Record has so often insisted. There were many votes here and elsewhere that went to Wilson not because he is a Democrat, but because the electors in the main approve of his acts as President. It was not a Democratic victory, not a party victory, but was exactly in accord with the wise intent of the founders of the American government.

In fact, there has never been an election in the United States that so illustrated and affirmed the wisdom of the founders of the republic and endorsed the complicated system as the election just past. Of course there were no parties when the constitution was adopted. They appeared later, but were always based on the opinions of some plausible leader. Possibly in no other instance was authority so essential as in the master hand of Lincoln, who had to suppress the radicals under Fremont and Chase and favor the Blairs to keep the "border states" loyal. It was his wisdom and patriotism that welded the sentiment of the whole North.

But parties grew and flourished on a basis of sentiment as well as personal opinion. Party action developed an abuse. The election just past was a reversal to type. It repudiated the parties and selected the President and representatives as originally designed. The result is not only a triumph for independence, but a triumph for the plan of government. The more it is studied and weighed, the more it will

THE 'DRYS' TO PERSIST

FROM THE STOCKTON RECORD

California has gone wet, but by such a decreased majority as rather to add to the confidence than to discourage the dry forces. With Missouri and Baltimore, the state remains in the wet column, and the worst feature about it was that the majority of voters seemed to respond to the expenditure and misrepresentation of the wets in the campaign. The date of actual prohibition has only been postponed, for it is quite certain that the dries will bring the matter up by the initiative in some form for resubmission at the election in 1918, with a much better assurance of carrying it.

It is the leading issue before the people today, and cannot be side-tracked. The forces are determined, the leaders tried out, and the evidence that can be summoned is rapidly increasing, almost multiplying, at every election. At the next election we can get not only the experience of the "solid South" (excepting Louisiana and Texas), but can add to that the experience with prohibition of at least a dozen northern states, besides Arizona and Oklahoma. The dries will have the testimony from millions of homes in twenty-three states to give, and whether the wets will increase their misrepresentations or continue to hide behind the innocent vineyards and barley fields cannot be guessed in advance. Any advance guess as to the course they will pursue may be at

be seen to have accomplished the very results designed by the framers of the constitution. It is good for us.—Stockton Record.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

The Financial Problem
Financial problems, so far as related to most of us, consist of trying to make the income equal the outgo. Perhaps it is fortunate that for the larger monetary tasks there are trained men who play with coins as a lot of kids play with marbles.

The average citizen might as well confess that he does not know anything about finance. If he tries to find out by reading he acquires a certain opinion which he holds confidently until he has read something else.

Just now the country seems to be worried about too much gold. Gold is the standard of money, and is money. People who possess it may buy things they need. Then why fret about having it, even in large quantities?

Bankers say that if they get much more of the stuff they might be tempted to lend it. Wouldn't that be sad? Perhaps the simplest way out of the mess would be to dump the gold in the sea and go back to Wampum.

Woman's Rights Invaded

Among the complaints of a woman who has sued for divorce is one that her husband jabbed her with a hatpin. The very fact that he had possession of such a weapon proves that he has no conception of feminine property rights.

Resigning Citizenship

The reason a Chicagoan gave for resigning his citizenship was that he was tired of receiving bales of campaign literature.

Let him view the stuff as handy in making the morning fire and withdraw the resignation.

Drawing the Line

For every ill somewhere there is a cure.

The problem is to find, and then apply it. But when you have a cold you can't endure.

And friends suggest a healing dope, don't try it.

Cold Storage Eggs

An effort is being made to induce women not to buy cold storage eggs until these have come down to a reasonable price. It is the consensus of opinion that a poor egg is overly dear at 70 cents a dozen. It's only legitimate use is to throw it at somebody, and decayed vegetation is cheaper.

The price of this egg is one of the artificially contrived hardships of which the domestic circle is the victim. Were the eggs turned loose in the quantity that would be possible no fancy figure could be asked. The dealers would have to be content with a profit of not over 40 per cent.

Eggs are bought for storage when they cost so little that no farmer will take them to market. The dealer who wants them has to go after them. But when these eggs have been in storage a few months, or a few years, how exceedingly precious they become!

Chickens

The mayor of one of the California beach cities has issued an order that no chicken shall be carried through the street by the feet.

Evidently this does not refer to the dressed chicken, which has no feet, nor to the over-dressed chicken, who wouldn't stand such usage for a minute.

Look for the Camera

Recently in a Pacific coast hotel a male waiter grabbed the head waiter by the hair, swung her around and hurled her into a pile of dishes.

In the excitement of the moment nobody thought to look around for the camera. No mere waiter would have acted so and movie stars have to assume all sorts of disguises.

PARENTS RESPONSIBLE?

What makes a delinquent boy or girl?
Are some boys and girls born to go right and others to go wrong, as the sparks to fly upward?
There are some who hold this opinion, and that the "criminal classes" are born with the instinct to commit crime—are criminals by predestination, inevitable wrong doers.
Judge Pinckney of the juvenile court of Chicago, who has personally followed up 25,000 "bad child" cases in his court during the years he has been on the bench, attributes the delinquency of children entirely to parental neglect—not to inefficient schools, nor bad government of cities, nor to the inequality of the laws, nor poverty, nor the temptations of city life, nor to any of the other causes commonly harped on by delinquent parents, but to home neglect of home duties.

There is no law that can correct such a condition," says Capper's Weekly; "it is not a public matter at all, but a private matter. Delinquent youths who later marry become delinquent parents."

According to Judge Pinckney, mothers are not as delinquent as fathers of youths who get into bad ways and into trouble. He recommends thrashing the father when the boy goes wrong.

And Capper's adds: "If the law can touch it at all the most it can do is to insure some penalty upon the negligent parent; but isn't all the trouble automatically brought upon parents by parental neglect penalty enough?"

But are parents always or nearly always to blame for juvenile delinquency? And if so, what ought they to do that they leave undone, or what leave undone that they have done?

The distinguished Chicago judge and the able Topeka editor would render a social service of inestimable value, not to mention the burden they would lift from the hearts of parents, if they would tell us just what parents ought to do to prevent juvenile delinquency.

IT AFFIRMS THE FIRST PLAN

The indications at present are that the Republicans will organize the House of Representatives, or at least that the Democrats will not control it. The actual margin of control may be in the hands of half a dozen Socialists, Prohibitionists, Progressives and independents. The Democrats will still control the Senate by a reduced majority. But the mixed membership of the lower house may not be an evil. It does prove indirectly that the country is not Democratic. The Democratic nominee for President was re-elected by independent votes such as were cast for him in California's San Joaquin Valley.

In one sense the House of Representatives is a truer indication of the popular pulse than the result of the presidential election, because the verdict in the latter must be by states, while in the House it is more directly due to the verdict of populous districts. But in both cases the personal factor and the spirit of independence play a large part, as the Record has so often insisted. There were many votes here and elsewhere that went to Wilson not because he is a Democrat, but because the electors in the main approve of his acts as President. It was not a Democratic victory, not a party victory, but was exactly in accord with the wise intent of the founders of the American government.

In fact, there has never been an election in the United States that so illustrated and affirmed the wisdom of the founders of the republic and endorsed the complicated system as the election just past. Of course there were no parties when the constitution was adopted. They appeared later, but were always based on the opinions of some plausible leader. Possibly in no other instance was authority so essential as in the master hand of Lincoln, who had to suppress the radicals under Fremont and Chase and favor the Blairs to keep the "border states" loyal. It was his wisdom and patriotism that welded the sentiment of the whole North.

But parties grew and flourished on a basis of sentiment as well as personal opinion. Party action developed an abuse. The election just past was a reversal to type. It repudiated the parties and selected the President and representatives as originally designed. The result is not only a triumph for independence, but a triumph for the plan of government. The more it is studied and weighed, the more it will

FROM THE STOCKTON RECORD

California has gone wet, but by such a decreased majority as rather to add to the confidence than to discourage the dry forces. With Missouri and Baltimore, the state remains in the wet column, and the worst feature about it was that the majority of voters seemed to respond to the expenditure and misrepresentation of the wets in the campaign. The date of actual prohibition has only been postponed, for it is quite certain that the dries will bring the matter up by the initiative in some form for resubmission at the election in 1918, with a much better assurance of carrying it.

It is the leading issue before the people today, and cannot be side-tracked. The forces are determined, the leaders tried out, and the evidence that can be summoned is rapidly increasing, almost multiplying, at every election. At the next election we can get not only the experience of the "solid South" (excepting Louisiana and Texas), but can add to that the experience with prohibition of at least a dozen northern states, besides Arizona and Oklahoma. The dries will have the testimony from millions of homes in twenty-three states to give; and whether the wets will increase their misrepresentations or continue to hide behind the innocent vineyards and barley fields cannot be guessed in advance. Any advance guess as to the course they will pursue may be at fault, but one prediction will certainly be fulfilled—any effort on the part of the wets will be futile, for all the opponents of the liquor traffic, including the Record, will redouble their efforts and converts will flock to the dry forces from every quarter, because the wets are half-crazed and cannot restrain their own excesses. As a matter of fact, it is the excesses that make the issue. If there were no excesses, no abuse of the drink privilege, there would be little demand for prohibition; so it is plain that the wet interests are always responsible for the prohibition issue.

The Record has long been convinced that it is utterly impossible to restrain the excesses and abuses of the wets, and, therefore, has no hesitation in promising to afford what support and help it can for state interference to prohibit the traffic by law, to protect the chief sufferers in the social fabric, in whatever logical form and at whatever legal time it may be presented. And we will do so with the same sincerity and with the same insistence and force that we could urge in restraint of murder, bank-burglary, horse-stealing or any other crime against the masses of the people. It is a forward-looking step that is just as sure to come to California as the wet and dry seasons, and our honest advice to all engaged in the traffic is to get out whenever opportunity offers.

With Malice Toward None

By Henry James

The Financial Problem
Financial problems, so far as related to most of us, consist of trying to make the income equal the outgo. Perhaps it is fortunate that for the larger monetary tasks there are trained men who play with coins as a lot of kids play with marbles.

The average citizen might as well confess that he does not know anything about finance. If he tries to find out by reading he acquires a certain opinion which he holds confidently until he has read something else.

Just now the country seems to be worried about too much gold. Gold is the standard of money, and is money. People who possess it may buy things they need. Then why fret about having it, even in large quantities?

Bankers say that if they get much more of the stuff they might be tempted to lend it. Wouldn't that be sad? Perhaps the simplest way out of the mess would be to dump the gold in the sea and go back to Wampum.

Woman's Rights Invaded

Among the complaints of a woman who has sued for divorce is one that her husband jabbed her with a hatpin. The very fact that he had possession of such a weapon proves that he has no conception of feminine property rights.

Resigning Citizenship

The reason a Chicagoan gave for resigning his citizenship was that he was tired of receiving bales of campaign literature.

Let him view the stuff as handy in making the morning fire and withdraw the resignation.

Drawing the Line

For every ill somewhere there is a cure. The problem is to find, and then apply it. But when you have a cold you can't endure. And friends suggest a healing dope, don't try it.

Cold Storage Eggs

An effort is being made to induce women not to buy cold storage eggs until these have come down to a reasonable price. It is the consensus of opinion that a poor egg is overly dear at 70 cents a dozen. It's only legitimate use is to throw at somebody, and decayed vegetation is cheaper.

The price of this egg is one of the artificially contrived hardships of which the domestic circle is the victim. Were the eggs turned loose in the quantity that would be possible no fancy figure could be asked. The dealers would have to be content with a profit of not over 40 per cent.

Eggs are bought for storage when they cost so little that no farmer will take them to market. The dealer who wants them has to go after them.

But when these eggs have been in storage a few months, or a few years, how exceedingly precious they become!

Chickens

The mayor of one of the California beach cities has issued an order that no chicken shall be carried through the street by the feet.

Evidently this does not refer to the dressed chicken, which has no feet, nor to the over-dressed chicken, who would stand such usage for a minute.

Recently in a Pacific coast hotel a male waiter grabbed the head waiter by the hair, swung her around and hurled her into a pile of dishes.

In the excitement of the moment nobody thought to look around for the camera. No mere waiter would have acted so and movie stars have to assume all sorts of disguises.

Explained

Gradually the reason for the advance in the price of print paper is beginning to appear.

It seems that the gentlemen who make the sign found that the gentlemen who use it have a little money left after the bills have been paid.

Peace

When gentlemen representing the conflicting interests of two countries get together in conference somebody posted in first aid to the injured ought to be within call.

The Healing Touch of Time

Doings In Social and Club Circles

SPANISH CLUB

High School Organization Adopts Constitution, Has Spanish Playlet

At the first meeting this year of the Spanish Club of the high school, a constitution was adopted and a general good time enjoyed. The meeting was held in the music room of the high school.

The feature of the interesting program was a Spanish comedy, the story being that of a society man who, being "hard-up" for money, decides to sell his beard to a prominent business man for $50, the hire of the appendage to be delivered upon demand. Upon the eve of a ball, at which the society man was the host, he was ordered to deliver one-half of his beard. Of course, he objected and was forced to pay $100 before he could shave off the other half.

The characters were well taken by J. Jenks, society man; Warren Fletcher, business man; David Anderson, his partner; Carlton Scott, the barber; Hans Weber and two by-standers, Donald Jerome and Mr. Hughes.

The club was entertained by a pretty Spanish solo sung by Miss Helen Sylvester, accompanied by Miss Blanche Hill.

As the secretary, Mr. Hughes, called the roll, each member responded with either a riddle or anecdote in Spanish, which added much to the amusement of the evening.

The meeting closed with refreshments of hot tamales, olives, sandwiches and jello.

THE THREE CHERRY TREES

There were three cherry trees
Grew in a garden all shady;
And there for delight for so glad-some a sight
Walked a most beautiful lady, Dreamed a most beautiful lady.

Birds in those branches did sing, Blackbird and thrush and
linnet.
But she walking there was by far the most fair—Lovelier than all else within it, Blackbird and thrush and
linnet.

But blossoms to berries do come,
All hanging on stalks light and slender;
And one long summer's day charmed that lady away, with vows sweet and merry and tender,
A lover with voice low and tender.

Moss and lichen the green branches deck;
Weeds nod in its paths green and shady;
Yet a light footstep seems there to wander in dreams,
The ghost of that beautiful
lady,
That happy and beautiful
lady.

W. R. C. Meeting

The regular meeting of the Woman's Relief Corps was held yesterday in G. A. R. hall. There was a good attendance. Mrs. Nellie King presiding. Application for membership was received from Mrs. Emma Latimer, who was balloted for and elected.

The Relief committee reported forty-four visits to sick and shut-ins. The chairman of the tea committee, Mrs. Clara Wedgwood, reported the receipts of the recent tea to be $6.75. A vote of thanks was tendered Mrs. Wedgwood.

The next meeting will be held December 7th and all members will be expected to be present, as that day the new officers will be elected. It was decided to give a free chicken dinner to the members of Sedgewick Post and their wives, and the members of the Relief Corps and their husbands on the 24th of the present month. The dinner will be served at noon at G. A. R. hall.

There was something said about another golden wedding in the near future, but so many of the old boys and girls are having golden weddings nowadays it is hard to tell who is which or what is who.

Anyhow it will do no harm to look in that old stocking and fish out a gold coin and be ready with your presents.

POLY ASSEMBLIES AT CLUNE'S ABANDONED

Polytechnic high school assemblies will not be held in Clune's Theater hereafter, according to an announcement made to the pupils of the institution this morning, and today's assembly was held in the "Greek Theater." Terms could not be agreed upon and arrangements will be made for some other meeting place.

At today's gathering the officers of the various departments made their quarterly reports, showing the student body to be in a flourishing condition financially.

Homer Holzfranz, football manager, gave the team's expenses as $243.67 and a balance of $39.33 in the treasury.

Joe Munroe, manager of the debating department, reported $4 spent and announced the first debates to be held next Wednesday. A home team will debate with Fullerton here and the other team will go to Huntington Beach.

Burton Wright for the Generator, reported $127.80 on hand and Felton B. Downing for the Aerial, said that $219.69 was turned over from that publication from last year's activities. Treasurer Leigh Faul reported $324.03 as receipts.

The Mars Club will have an all-night party tonight and this evening there will be a big football rally, the students dressing as rubes and making the town lively, as a preparation for tomorrow's game with Pasadena, the Poly Braves hoping to win the championship. Some clever stunts were pulled off at Assembly this morning, as a sample of what will be done to Pasadena. These included an ingenious yell by the team as to whether they would be victors or not.

Wayne Stewart gave an interesting account of the football team's trip to Phoenix, Ariz.

After the rally tonight the seniors have been invited to be guests of the management of the Temple Theater, the juniors of the West End and sophomores and freshmen of the Princess.

Our store and warehouse is crowded to the limit with home furnishings bought at old prices before the big advance and we are therefore in a position to quote very attractive prices. Horton-Spurgeon Furniture Company.

CONSCIENCE CAUSES RETURN OF STOLEN $10

ORANGE, Nov. 17.—Mrs. M. B. Thompson, owner of the Thompson rooming house, yesterday received $10 returned by a former roomer who stole it from one of her rooms about two months ago.

The money apparently acted as an irritant on the man's conscience, for it was accompanied by a letter in which he reproved the landlady for leaving money in a rented room.

The money was taken from a room usually occupied by Mrs. Thompson's daughter, but on this occasion it was rented and by an oversight, the money was left in the room, where the man found and pocketed it. The letter accompanied by $5 bills, reads:

November 16, 1916.

Dear Lady:
Am sending you the money which disappeared some time ago, by this way, as am not have been in this direction, I think it's better so than in another way. There the man got a wife and children. Let did be a lesson for both your daughter not to leave any money in a room which you going to hire out and for de man not to bring him self anymore in temptation.

HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

—People who are over-burdened with superfluous fat, know only too well the discomfort and ridicule that overweight people have to bear. If you are carrying around five or ten pounds of unhealthy fat you are unnecessarily weakening your vital organs and are carrying a burden which destroys the beauty of your figure.

There is no need of anyone suffering from superfluous fat. If you want to reduce your weight in a simple, safe and reliable way, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise, here is a test worth trying. Spend as much time as you can in the open air, breathe deeply and get from the Rowley Drug Company or any good druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before going to night.

Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight and don't leave off the treatment or even skip a single dose until you are down to normal. Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, and helps digestion. Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, footpads become lighter, your work seems easier and a lighter and more buoyant feeling takes possession of your whole being.

Every person who suffers from superfluous fat should give this treatment a trial.—Advertisement.

BRAZIL OFFERS YOUNG YANKEES BIG CHANCES TO GET AHEAD

Fourth Largest Country Offers Splendid Opportunities

BY H. B. ROBERTSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 17.—That young America is casting a speculative eye on Brazil is evident from the hundreds of letters received by Americans already established here.

"What are the chances for a young man, with large ambition but small bank account, in Brazil," he writes. The answer is, "the chances in Brazil are very good if—and it is an important if—if you can speak the language." The language of Brazil is Portuguese. Incidentally it is a serious mistake to suppose that one can "get by" by speaking Spanish. Spanish is no better understood than English in Brazil.

The United States puts on considerable chest over its size and natural resources, but in neither one has it "anything on" Brazil. It is the fourth largest country in the world, its natural resources are unlimited and it has a population of about twenty-five millions which has not yet driven its frontier more than a third of the way to the western boundary.

Farming to Fore
Agriculture is by far the most important occupation, with commerce, construction, transportation, mining, lumbering and manufacturing following in order of importance. All are in about the same stage of development as they were in the United States in Van Buren's administration. In only a few of the industries are the methods modern. American up-to-date methods and ingenuity are eagerly welcomed, however, as Brazilians are progressive, after a late start.

The climate ranges from torrid heat of the tropical Amazon to occasional frost in the southernmost states. Agriculture takes its harvest from two to five times a year. Coffee, rubber, sugar, tobacco, cotton, grains, fruits and live stock products are the chief sources of agricultural riches.

In the export of the agricultural products and the import of practically all the Brazilian uses in manufactured goods commerce prospers—in the hands of foreigners who carry on practically all the commercial activities of the country.

Vast Empire Calls
A new country whose chief thought is its own development gives the engineer, the contractor and the builder the opportunity he seeks and there is no limit to the range of his work. Railroads are penetrating the jungled valleys following the westward moving farmer. Electric power is sought in the thousands of rivers that tumble from the mountain ranges. Villages and towns are being built in farming centers, at the mouth of mines and where trails cross.

Gold, precious stones, coal, iron, copper and rarer metals make it worth while to mine in practically every state in Brazil. Manufacturing is still very much an infant industry. Seventy-five million people will be added to the present population before Brazil accomplishes the development that was worked in the United States from Van Buren to Wilson and just as many fortunes will be made here as were made there in the interval. These fortunes will be made in about the same way and by the same kind of men—pioneers.

WESTERN MARYLAND RY. TO REORGANIZE

$18,000,000 Debt Is to Be Eliminated If Directors' Plan Is Adopted

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Directors of the Western Maryland Railway will today submit to the stockholders a plan of re-organization of the property necessitated by a top-heavy funded debt coupled with a period of unsatisfactory earnings.

It is planned to organize a new company to take over the present, to eliminate $18,000,000 of the funded debt and to segregate the company's coal properties. The shareholders will be asked to authorize a new first preferred 7 per cent stock to the amount of $18,000,000, second preferred non-cumulative 4 per cent stock amounting to $10,000,000 and $50,000,000 in common stock.

CHAMPAGNE DINNER IS GIVEN TO MAKE APPLE 'TIP' DIVISION

LONDON—A young British subaltern a few weeks ago called up one of the men on his platoon, gave him a letter to post and presented him with an apple as a tip.

The private called together three of his friends and invited them to a champagne dinner. The piece of resistance of the evening was an apple divided into four sections. The host's name is well known as that of one of the wealthiest men in England, and the ingenious "sub" has not yet heard the last of his tip.

TO BAN RUM MAKING

LONDON, Nov. 17.—The manufacture of intoxicating liquors may be prohibited in Great Britain. A motion to this effect will be made in the House of Commons, it has been announced.

PIONEERS MOURN DEATH OF 'QUO VADIS' AUTHOR

Modjeska Project of 1876 In Anaheim Recalled By Passing of Sienkiewicz

Several old-time residents of Anaheim today are sorrowing over the death at Vevey, Switzerland, of Henry Sienkiewicz, the Polish novelist, best known in this country as the author of "Quo Vadis."

Hoping to found a colony for oppressed Poles, Madame Helena Modjeska, the famous Polish actress, who for many years made her home at Arden, in the Santiago canyon, settled on a ranch at Anaheim about 1876, and was joined by Sienkiewicz, who had emigrated to the United States.

Madame Modjeska's project at Anaheim did not succeed and Sienkiewicz returned to his own country to engage in literary work. His "Quo Vadis" has been translated into almost every European language.

Sienkiewicz is said to have written the larger part of the novel while living in Los Angeles. Records of the old Pico house were dug up and a record of the Polish author's arrival there was found on the register of the famous old-time hotel. The page from the register containing the entry was forwarded to Europe, where it now is.

Aided Pole Relief
Sienkiewicz had been in frequent communication with the Polish relief committee in New York and with the National American Red Cross, in both of which branches of work he was interested.

A member of the Polish committee at Lausanne, Switzerland, sent the announcement of Sienkiewicz's death. The author died at Vevey, Switzerland, the message said.

NEW WINTER SPORT IS SHOOTING DUCKS FROM AEROPLANES

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—E. Kenneth Jaquith has introduced duck shooting from his hydro-aeroplane. The sport has become popular among visitors since cooler weather interrupted the regular flying schedule. It is said to be the first time on record that actual duck killings have been made from a flying boat in the north.

Mr. Jaquith has followed the sport in the south during the winter months. In order to avoid the game laws, which make it unlawful to shoot game birds from a craft propelled either by sail or engine the gunning is done outside the three-mile limit over the ocean.

10,000 HONOR WILSON

WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—More than 10,000 persons marched from the capitol to the White House to band music and pyrotechnics during an enthusiastic home-coming celebration in honor of President Wilson's re-election. The procession was viewed by the President and Mrs. Wilson from the portico of the White House.

BOY SLAYERS ACQUITTED

the Bay City, prepared for another struggle to make California "dry."

Sentiment is ripe for another struggle carried on with more determination than ever before and another such victory cannot be afforded by the "wets," the dry leader declares.

"I am ready to begin at once," was his answer when asked to state his stand on the question of another fight.

To Await Conference Outcome
A plan full of defiance and sensations, it is believed, will be outlined at San Francisco. Gandier was not at liberty to outline just what form the contest would take. He stated he would await the outcome of the meeting at the Bay City.

Alleged frauds took place and irregularities were discovered, Gandier said. Circumstances to bear out the theory of illegal voting in San Francisco have been brought to light, declared the "dry" leader.

Th result of the election gives Gandier much confidence and optimism. He said:

"Two years ago thirteen counties gave 'dry' majorities. This year twenty-six counties gave 'dry' majorities, and final returns may show that twenty-seven did."

Sees 1918 Victory

Gandier declared that progress was made all along the line. One more victory for the "wets," secured in spite of grape growing districts giving big "dry" majorities or breaking almost even, and the liquor traffic being kept in the state by the vote of San Francisco alone, will put the "wets" out of business, declared Gandier.

WASHINGTON—In a brief that has been filed in the supreme court by Attorney General Webb of California and District Attorney Woolwine of Los Angeles, in support of the constitutionality of California laws exempting Christian Science and other "prayer practitioners" from examination before medical boards, the court was referred to forty-six Bible quotations which, the California attorneys declare, proved that "healing by prayer or as a part of the practice of a religion was ample justification in the Scriptures." It was stated that seventeen other states give similar exceptions and an order of former President Taft providing a similar exception in the Panama canal zone was cited.

PIONEERS MOURN DEATH OF 'QUO VADIS' AUTHOR

Modjeska Project of 1876 In Anaheim Recalled By Passing of Sienkiewicz

Several old-time residents of Anaheim today are sorrowing over the death at Vevey, Switzerland, of Henry Sienkiewicz, the Polish novelist, best known in this country as the author of "Quo Vadis."

Hoping to found a colony for oppressed Poles, Madame Helena Modjeska, the famous Polish actress, who for many years made her home at Arden, in the Santiago canyon, settled on a ranch at Anaheim about 1876, and was joined by Sienkiewicz, who had emigrated to the United States.

Madame Modjeska's project at Anaheim did not succeed and Sienkiewicz returned to his own country to engage in literary work. His "Quo Vadis" has been translated into almost every European language.

Sienkiewicz is said to have written the larger part of the novel while living in Los Angeles. Records of the old Pico house where dug up and a record of the Polish author's arrival there was found on the register of the famous old-time hotel. The page from the register containing the entry was forwarded to Europe, where it now is.

Aided Pole Relief
Sienkiewicz had been in frequent communication with the Polish relief committee in New York and with the National American Red Cross, in both of which branches of work he was interested.

A member of the Polish committee at Lausanne, Switzerland, sent the announcement of Sienkiewicz's death. The author died at Vevey, Switzerland, the message said.

NEW WINTER SPORT IS SHOOTING DUCKS FROM AEROPLANES

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—E. Kenneth Jacquith has introduced duck shooting from his hydro-aeroplane. The sport has become popular among visitors since cooler weather interrupted the regular flying schedule. It is said to be the first time on record that actual duck killings have been made from a flying boat in the north.

Mr. Jacquith has followed the sport in the south during the winter months. In order to avoid the game laws, which make it unlawful to shoot game birds from a craft propelled either by sail or engine the gunning is done outside the three-mile limit over the ocean.

10,000 HONOR WILSON
WASHINGTON, Nov. 17.—More than 10,000 persons marched from the capitol to the White House to band music and pyrotechnics during an enthusiastic home-coming celebration in honor of President Wilson's re-election. The procession was viewed by the President and Mrs. Wilson from the portico of the White House.

BOY SLAYERS ACQUITTED
TWIN FALLS, Idaho, Nov. 17.—Harold Lovelace, 12, and Lynn, 11, his brother, confessed slayers of F. Thomas Hamill, a school teacher, were found not guilty by a jury. On hearing the verdict their mother became hysterical.

BRAZIL OFFERS YOUNG YANKEES BIG CHANCES TO GET AHEAD

BY H. B. ROBERTSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 17.—That young America is casting a speculative eye on Brazil is evident from the hundreds of letters received by Americans already established here.

"What are the chances for a young man, with large ambition but small bank account, in Brazil," he writes.

The answer is, "the chances in Brazil are very good if—and it is an important 'if'—if you can speak the language." The language of Brazil is Portuguese. Incidentally it is a serious mistake to suppose that one can "get by" by speaking Spanish. Spanish is no better understood than English in Brazil.

The United States puts on considerable chest over its size and natural resources, but in neither one has it "anything on" Brazil. It is the fourth largest country in the world, its natural resources are unlimited and it has a population of about twenty-five millions which has not yet driven its frontier more than a third of the way to the western boundary.

Farming to Fore

Agriculture is by far the most important occupation, with commerce, construction, transportation, mining, lumbering and manufacturing following in order of importance. All are in about the same stage of development as they were in the United States in Van Buren's administration. In only a few of the industries are the methods modern. American up-to-date methods and ingenuity are eagerly welcomed, however, as Brazilians are progressive, after a late start.

The climate ranges from torrid heat of the tropical Amazon to occasional frost in the southernmost states. Agriculture takes its harvest from two to five times a year. Coffee, rubber, sugar, tobacco, cotton, grains, fruits and live stock products are the chief sources of agricultural riches.

In the export of the agricultural products and the import of practically all the Brazilian uses in manufactured goods commerce prospers—in the hands of foreigners who carry on practically all the commercial activities of the country.

Vast Empire Calls

A new country whose chief thought is its own development gives the engineer, the contractor and the builder the opportunity he seeks and there is no limit to the range of his work. Railroads are penetrating the jungled valleys following the westward moving farmer. Electric power is sought in the thousands of rivers that tumble from the mountain ranges. Villages and towns are being built in farming centers, at the mouth of mines and where trails cross.

Gold, precious stones, coal, iron, copper and rarer metals make it worth while to mine in practically every state in Brazil. Manufacturing is still very much an infant industry.

Seventy-five million people will be added to the present population before Brazil accomplishes the development that was worked in the United States from Van Buren to Wilson and just as many fortunes will be made here as were made there in the interval. These fortunes will be made in about the same way and by the same kind of men—pioneers.

WESTERN MARYLAND RY. TO REORGANIZE

$18,000,000 Debt Is to Be Eliminated If Directors' Plan Is Adopted

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Directors of the Western Maryland Railway will today submit to the stockholders a plan of re-organization of the property necessitated by a top-heavy funded debt coupled with a period of unsatisfactory earnings.

It is planned to organize a new company to take over the present, to eliminate $18,000,000 of the funded debt and to segregate the company's coal properties. The shareholders will be asked to authorize a new first and refunding mortgage for $150,000,000, first preferred 7 per cent stock to the amount of $18,000,000, second preferred non-cumulative 4 per cent stock amounting to $10,000,000 and $50,000,000 in common stock.

CHAMPAGNE DINNER IS GIVEN TO MAKE APPLE 'TIP' DIVISION

LONDON—A young British subaltern a few weeks ago called up one of the men on his platoon, gave him a letter to post and presented him with an apple as a tip.

The private called together three of his friends and invited them to a champagne dinner. The piece de resistance of the evening was an apple divided into four sections. The host's name is well known as that of one of the wealthiest men in England, and the ingenious "sub" has not yet heard the last of his tip.

TO BAN RUM MAKING
LONDON, Nov. 17.—The manufacture of intoxicating liquors may be prohibited in Great Britain. A motion to this effect will be made in the House of Commons, it has been announced.

WOMAN GIVEN TWO DAYS

o Make Up Her Mind for Surgical Operation. She Refused; Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"One year ago I was very sick and I suffered with pains in my side and back until I nearly went crazy. I went to different doctors and they all said I had female trouble and would not get any relief until I would be operated on. I had suffered for four years before this time, but I kept getting worse the more medicine I took. Every month since I was a young girl I had suffered with cramps in my sides at periods and was never regular. I saw your advertisement in the newspaper and the picture of a woman who had been saved from an operation and this picture was impressed on my mind. The doctor had given me only two more days to make up my mind so I sent my husband to the next ten years. All able bodied men between the ages of 21 and 44 years are subject to the call to arms, when called they must join the colors or be liable to punishment as deserters.

By a scheme of short time service favors advanced to those who wish to escape the two years' service in the active army, however, the greater part of Brazil's army probably will be composed of "volunteers." More than 50,000 volunteers enlisted for the short service between August 1st and September 30th, this year, and it is probable that this number will be doubled before December 1, when ten per cent. of those who did not volunteer will be drawn by lot for compulsory service. The volunteer and drawing by lot process will be repeated each year.

The men of the new army will be divided according to their ages, those between the ages of 21 and 30 going into the first line of the active army and its reserve, between 30 and 37 into the second line and its reserve, and between 37 and 44 into the third line and its reserve or the national guard. After nine years in the active army the men are retired to the reserve.

Provide Three Classes

The volunteers are classed according to how they wish to serve, for the two years' service, for the annual maneuvers and training camp, or for training in schools and in shooting clubs under the instruction of army officers. ### HAIL MYSTIC LOTION AS SUFFERERS' BOON

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Physicians here today believe that they will be able to save thousands of lives and lessen suffering to a great degree by the use of the mysterious Carrel lotion which has been introduced from France where, on the battle front, almost countless numbers of lives have been saved by its use. Chlorine gas, a germ killer, is given off by the lotion, which is made of Chloride of lime, carbonate of soda and boric acid. It is declared to be ten times as efficient as carbolic acid and does not irritate wounds. Its cheapness is a great argument in its favor.

Mrs. McCoy died of heart trouble in Sodaville, Nevada, at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Edwin Beck, formerly Miss Dell McCoy. The body was brought to Los Angeles by her son, H. A. McCoy. She was 89 years of age, and leaves besides the daughter, three sons, Harry A. McCoy, of Sodaville, Nev., Ralph McCoy, of Beaumont, Cal.; Dr. Dale McCoy, of Montana. Her eldest son, John A. McCoy, died in 1881, the result of a threshing machine accident in early manhood. Besides these she leaves one brother, W. H. Marquis, of Monrovia; two sisters, Mrs. Robert Strong, Pasadena; Mrs. J. M. Guinn, Highland Park.

The funeral services were conducted by Dr. H. T. Gage. Mrs. Mamie Tilton, daughter of J. Y. Anderson, beautifully sang "Asleep in Jesus," and "Goodnight." Among those who attended the funeral were the following former residents of this place: Mrs. Maggie Fiske, Mrs. Bessie Boring, Mrs. Birdie Ball, Mrs. Mamie Tilton, Frank Poor, W. H. Marquis, Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Berlingame.

Interment was at Anaheim, where her husband, Dr. James McCoy, was buried twenty-two years ago, and where their son is also buried. She and her husband were among the early pioneers, and very prominent in the early history of Westminster. Their home place consisted of the forty acres west of the school lot bordering the north side of the street. Dr. McCoy built the house now occupied by J. J. Booth.

The following program was given at the annual praise meeting of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church, held at Mrs. Eva Dick's home:

Piano solo, Mrs. Byram; devotionals led by Mrs. Wardle, consisting of the following parts: Call to Praise, hymn, "Praise Him," scripture reading, verse of scripture, testimonials and prayers by all; recitation, "Smiles," Helen McCoy; Spanish solo, Mary Durand; reading, "Thanksgiving," Ann, Mrs. Forrest Rich; "Bought With a Price," Misses Thompson, Francis and Byram; reading, "A Communion Memory," Mrs. Reed; duet, "Ivory

'DRYS' TO PLAN NEW FIGHT AT S. F. NOV. 28

HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

—People who are overburdened with superfluous fat, know only too well the discomfort and ridicule that over-stout people have to bear. If you are carrying around five or ten pounds of unhealthy fat you are unnecessarily weakening your vital organs and are carrying a burden which destroys the beauty of your figure.

There is no need of anyone suffering from superfluous fat. If you want to reduce your weight in a simple, safe and reliable way, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise, here is a test worth trying. Spend as much time as you can in the open air, breathe deeply and get from the Rowley Drug Company or any good druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before going to bed.

Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight and don't leave off the treatment or even skip a single dose until you are down to normal. Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, and helps digestion. Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, footprints become lighter, your work seems easier and a lighter and more buoyant feeling takes possession of your whole being.

Every person who suffers from superfluous fat should give this treatment a trial.—Advertisement.

the Bay City, prepared for another struggle to make California "dry."

Sentiment is ripe for another struggle carried on with more determination than ever before and another such victory cannot be afforded by the "wets," the dry leader declares.

"I am ready to begin at once," was his answer when asked to state his stand on the question of another fight.

To Await Conference Outcome
A plan full of defiance and sensations, it is believed, will be outlined at San Francisco. Gandier was not at liberty to outline just what form the contest would take. He stated he would await the outcome of the meeting at the Bay City.

Alleged frauds took place and irregularities were discovered, Gandier said. Circumstances to bear out the theory of illegal voting in San Francisco have been brought to light, declared the "dry" leader.

Th result of the election gives Gandier much confidence and optimism. He said:

"Two years ago thirteen counties gave 'dry' majorities. This year twenty-six counties gave 'dry' majorities, and final returns may show that twenty-seven did."

Sees 1918 Victory
Gandier declared that progress was made all along the line. One more victory for the "wets" secured in spite of grape growing districts giving big 'dry' majorities or breaking almost even, and the liquor traffic being kept in the state by the vote of San Francisco alone, will put the "wets" out of business, declared Gandier.

PIONEERS MOURN DEATH OF 'QUO VADIS' AUTHOR

Modjeska Project of 1876 In Anaheim Recalled By Passing of Sienkiewicz

Several old-time residents of Anaheim today are sorrowing over the death at Vevey, Switzerland, of Henry Sienkiewicz, the Polish novelist, best known in this country as the author of "Quo Vadis."

Hoping to found a colony for oppressed Poles, Madame Helena Modjeska, the famous Polish actress, who for many years made her home at Arden, in the Santiago canyon, settled on a ranch at Anaheim about 1876, and was joined by Sienkiewicz, who had emigrated to the United States.

Madame Modjeska's project at Anaheim did not succeed and Sienkiewicz returned to his own country to engage in literary work. His "Quo Vadis" has been translated into almost every European language.

Sienkiewicz is said to have written the larger part of the novel while living in Los Angeles. Records of the old Pico house were dug up and a record of the Polish author's arrival there was found on the register of the famous old-time hotel. The page from the register containing the entry was forwarded to Europe, where it now is.

Aided Pole Relief
Sienkiewicz had been in frequent communication with the Polish relief committee in New York and with the National American Red Cross, in both of which branches of work he was interested.

A member of the Polish committee at Lausanne, Switzerland, sent the announcement of Sienkiewicz's death. The author died at Vevey, Switzerland, the message said.

NEW WINTER SPORT IS SHOOTING DUCKS FROM AEROPLANES

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J.—E. Kenneth Jacquith has introduced duck shooting from his hydro-aeroplane. The sport has become popular among visitors since cooler weather interrupted the regular flying schedule. It is said to be the first time on record that actual duck killings have been made from a flying boat in the north.

Mr. Jacquith has followed the sport in the south during the winter months. In order to avoid the game laws which make it unlawful to shoot game birds from a craft propelled either by sail or engine the gunning is done outside the three-mile limit over the ocean.

BRAZIL OFFERS YOUNG YANKEES BIG CHANCES TO GET AHEAD

BY H. B. ROBERTSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 17.—That young America is casting a speculative eye on Brazil is evident from the hundreds of letters received by Americans already established here. "What are the chances for a young man, with large ambition but small bank account, in Brazil," he writes. The answer is, "the chances in Brazil are very good if—and it is an important 'if'—if you can speak the language." The language of Brazil is Portuguese. Incidentally it is a serious mistake to suppose that one can "get by" by speaking Spanish. Spanish is no better understood than English in Brazil.

The United States puts on considerable chest over its size and natural resources, but in neither one has it "anything on" Brazil. It is the fourth largest country in the world, its natural resources are unlimited and it has a population of about twenty-five millions which has not yet driven its frontier more than a third of the way to the western boundary.

Farming to Fore
Agriculture is by far the most important occupation, with commerce, construction, transportation, mining, lumbering and manufacturing following in order of importance. All are in about the same stage of development as they were in the United States in Van Buren's administration. In only a few of the industries are the methods modern. American up-to-date methods and ingenuity are eagerly welcomed, however, as Brazilians are progressive, after a late start.

The climate ranges from torrid heat of the tropical Amazon to occasional frost in the southernmost states. Agriculture takes its harvest from two to five times a year. Coffee, rubber, sugar, tobacco, cotton, grains, fruits and live stock products are the chief sources of agricultural riches.

In the export of the agricultural products and the import of practically all the Brazilian uses in manufactured goods commerce prospers—in the hands of foreigners who carry on practically all the commercial activities of the country.

Vast Empire Calls
A new country whose chief thought is its own development gives the engineer, the contractor and the builder the opportunity he seeks and there is no limit to the range of his work. Railroads are penetrating the jungled valleys following the westward moving farmer. Electric power is sought in the thousands of rivers that tumble from the mountain ranges. Villages and towns are being built in farming centers, at the mouth of mines and where trails cross.

Gold, precious stones, coal, iron, copper and other metals make it worth while to mine in practically every state in Brazil. Manufacturing is still very much an infant industry.

Seventy-five million people will be added to the present population before Brazil accomplishes the development that was worked in the United States from Van Buren to Wilson and just as many fortunes will be made here as were made there in the interval. These fortunes will be made in about the same way and by the same kind of men—pioneers.

WESTERN MARYLAND RY. TO REORGANIZE

$18,000,000 Debt Is to Be Eliminated If Directors' Plan Is Adopted

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Directors of the Western Maryland Railway will today submit to the stockholders a plan of re-organization of the property necessitated by a top-heavy funded debt coupled with a period of unsatisfactory earnings.

It is planned to organize a new company to take over the present, to eliminate $18,000,000 of the funded debt and to segregate the company's coal properties. The shareholders will be asked to authorize a new first and refunding mortgage for $150,000,000, first preferred 7 per cent stock to the amount of $18,000,000, second preferred non-cumulative 4 per cent stock amounting to $10,000,000 and $50,000,000 in common stock.

CHAMPAGNE DINNER IS GIVEN TO MAKE APPLE 'TIP' DIVISION

LONDON—A young British subaltern a few weeks ago called up one of the men on his platoon, gave him a letter to post and presented him with an apple as a tip.

The private called together three of his friends and invited them to a champagne dinner. The piece de resistance of the evening was an apple divided into four sections. The host's name is well known as that of one of the wealthiest men in England, and the ingenious "sub" has not yet heard the last of his tip.

BRAZIL OFFERS YOUNG YANKEES BIG CHANCES TO GET AHEAD

Fourth Largest Country Offers Splendid Opportunities

BY H. B. ROBERTSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 17.—That young America is casting a speculative eye on Brazil is evident from the hundreds of letters received by Americans already established here.

"What are the chances for a young man, with large ambition but small bank account, in Brazil," he writes.

The answer is, "the chances in Brazil are very good if—and it is an important 'if'—if you can speak the language." The language of Brazil is Portuguese. Incidentally it is a serious mistake to suppose that one can "get by" by speaking Spanish. Spanish is no better understood than English in Brazil.

The United States puts on considerable chest over its size and natural resources, but in neither one has it "anything on" Brazil. It is the fourth largest country in the world, its natural resources are unlimited and it has a population of about twenty-five millions which has not yet driven its frontier more than a third of the way to the western boundary.

Farming to Fore
Agriculture is by far the most important occupation, with commerce, construction, transportation, mining, lumbering and manufacturing following in order of importance. All are in about the same stage of development as they were in the United States in Van Buren's administration. In only a few of the industries are the methods modern. American up-to-date methods and ingenuity are eagerly welcomed, however, as Brazilians are progressive, after a late start.

The climate ranges from torrid heat of the tropical Amazon to occasional frost in the southernmost states. Agriculture takes its harvest from two to five times a year. Coffee, rubber, sugar, tobacco, cotton, grains, fruits and live stock products are the chief sources of agricultural riches.

In the export of the agricultural products and the import of practically all the Brazilian uses in manufactured goods commerce prospers—in the hands of foreigners who carry on practically all the commercial activities of the country.

Vast Empire Calls
A new country whose chief thought is its own development gives the engineer, the contractor and the builder the opportunity he seeks and there is no limit to the range of his work. Rail roads are penetrating the jungled valleys following the westward moving farmer. Electric power is sought in the thousands of rivers that tumble from the mountain ranges. Villages and towns are being built in farming centers, at the mouth of mines and where trails cross.

Gold, precious stones, coal, iron, copper and rarer metals make it worth while to mine in practically every state in Brazil. Manufacturing is still very much an infant industry.

Seventy-five million people will be added to the present population before Brazil accomplishes the development that was worked in the United States from Van Buren to Wilson and just as many fortunes will be made here as were made there in the interval. These fortunes will be made in about the same way and by the same kind of men—pioneers.

$18,000,000 Debt Is to Be Eliminated If Directors' Plan Is Adopted

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Directors of the Western Maryland Railway will today submit to the stockholders a plan of re-organization of the property necessitated by a top-heavy funded debt coupled with a period of unsatisfactory earnings.

It is planned to organize a new company to take over the present, to eliminate $18,000,000 of the funded debt and to segregate the company's coal properties. The shareholders will be asked to authorize a new first and refunding mortgage for $150,000,000, first preferred 7 per cent stock to the amount of $18,000,000, second preferred non-cumulative 4 per cent stock amounting to $10,000,000 and $50,000,000 in common stock.

CHAMPAGNE DINNER IS GIVEN TO MAKE APPLE 'TIP' DIVISION

LONDON—A young British subaltern a few weeks ago called up one of the men on his platoon, gave him a letter to post and presented him with an apple as a tip.

The private called together three of his friends and invited them to a champagne dinner. The piece de resistance of the evening was an apple divided into four sections. The host's name is well known as that of one of the wealthiest men in England, and the ingenious "sub" has not yet heard the last of his tip.

TO BAN RUM MAKING
LONDON, Nov. 17.—The manufacture of intoxicating liquors may be prohibited in Great Britain. A motion to this effect will be made in the House of Commons, it has been announced.

HOW TO REDUCE YOUR WEIGHT

—People who are over-burdened with superfluous fat, know only too well the discomfort and ridicule that overcast people have to bear.

If you are carrying around five or ten pounds of unhealthy fat you are unnecessarily weakening your vital organs and are carrying a burden which destroys the beauty of your figure.

There is no need of anyone suffering from superfluous fat. If you want to reduce your weight in a simple, safe and reliable way, without starvation diet or tiresome exercise, here is a test worth trying. Spend as much time as you can in the open air, breathe deeply and get from the Rowley Drug Company or any good druggist a box of oil of korein capsules; take one after each meal and one before going to night.

Weigh yourself once a week so as to know just how fast you are losing weight and don't leave off the treatment or even skip a single dose until you are down to normal.

Oil of korein is absolutely harmless, is pleasant to take, and helps digestion. Even a few days' treatment has been reported to show a noticeable reduction in weight, footpads become lighter, your work seem easier and a lighter and more buoyant feeling takes possession of your whole being.

Every person who suffers from superfluous fat should give this treatment a trial.—Advertisement.

Funeral of Pioneer Held—Remains Laid Beside Husband at Anaheim

WESTMINSTER, Nov. 16.—Mr. and Mrs. W. B. McCoy attended the funeral of Mr. McCoy's aunt, Mrs. Clem McCoy, in Los Angeles, Tuesday, at the residence of her sister, Mrs. Guina. ## HAIL MYSTIC LOTION AS SUFFERERS' BOON

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Physicians here today believe that they will be able to save thousands of lives and lessen suffering to a great degree by the use of the mysterious Carrel lotion which has been introduced from France where, on the battle front, almost countless numbers of lives have been saved by its use. Chlorine gas, a germ killer, is given off by the lotion, which is made of Chloride of lime, carbonate of soda and boric acid. It is declared to be ten times as efficient as carbolic acid and does not irritate wounds. Its cheapness is a great argument in its favor.

HAIL MYSTIC LOTION AS SUFFERERS' BOON

CHICAGO, Nov. 17.—Physicians here today believe that they will be able to save thousands of lives and lessen suffering to a great degree by the use of the mysterious Carrel lotion which has been introduced from France where, on the battle front, almost countless numbers of lives have been saved by its use. Chlorine gas, a germ killer, is given off by the lotion, which is made of Chloride of lime, carbonate of soda and boric acid. It is declared to be ten times as efficient as carbolic acid and does not irritate wounds. Its cheapness is a great argument in its favor.

Only because the Fort Worth and Denver train was running late, a bad wreck was averted.

Step to Restore American Merchant Marine

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—Involving $15,000,000, a deal which marks the first definite step to place the American flag over a merchant marine of the first rank on the world's seas, was taken here when the New York Shipbuilding Company of Camden, N. J., was purchased by the International Mercantile Company, the American International Corporation, the Pacific Mail Steamship Company and W. R. Grace Company.

In a statement made by G. B. Baldwin, vice president of the American International Company, he said that the advent of the steel vessel has made the present time opportune for restoring the American merchant marine to its former prestige.

The construction of new vessels will begin at once.

A merchant marine built up under what were declared to be the present favorable war conditions would make possible the securing of a modification of the seamen's bill that will enable the companies interested to make money when the war ends, Baldwin stated.

The companies for which Baldwin is spokesman control almost the entire vessel tonnage free to use the seas today.

MANY ASK LAND REGISTERED IN TORRENS LAND SYSTEM HERE

In Two Actions Begun Today
Eighty-two Title Holders
Are Petitioners

Interest in the registration of lands in this county under the Torrens land act took a sudden jump at the courthouse today when eighty-two property owners petitioned to have their properties registered under the act.

The law went into effect on December 14, 1914. Miss Justine Whitney, county recorder, prepared a book for receiving registrations, but so far has received but eleven certificates for registration.

Recently a solicitor for a firm of Los Angeles attorneys, Crail & Crail, went into the Katella and West Orange sections, as well as West Anaheim, East Anaheim and Olive sections. The result of his work was evidenced in the filing of two actions at the county clerk's office, by which eighty-two titleholders ask that their lands be registered under the land act. The petitions will be heard in the superior court, and the certificates that will be issued will be recorded.

"So far," said Miss Whitney, "there have been no transfers of registered property. When the number of pieces of property registered grows to a considerable figure and transfers become frequent, the work of the land registration department will be no small item."

The petitioners in one of the actions follow: H. W. Skinner, R. J. Sparkes, M. F. Hughes, J. F. Hahn, A. B. Coffman, Mary O. Kellogg, Wilhelm Bischof, W. B. Fay, A. T. Hooven, G. L. Tolson, Clair Head, Wm. Black, C. H. Petersen, Ida C. Hamilton, J. L. Wright, John Hahn, John Gustafson, Mary A. Neubauer, W. F. Schimming, C. H. Snavey, Burton Miller, A. G. Miller, J. S. Bean, Robert Bosshart, Joseph Fiscus, A. E. Hurley, L. A. Fordham, Mary A. W. Foyle, L. J. Jones, F. H. Smith, George Kogge, Marlon A. Andrews, Daniel Bobst, G. R. Simpson, George Barfoot, N. E. Allen, C. H. Thayer.

The petitioners in the second action are: G. W. Ford, Mae Z. Walsworth, Theodore Ford, E. J. Haase, J. J. Swartzbaugh, Louise J. Newton, G. P. Thompson, John Madlener, Quinn Nichols, Jesse O. Nichols, F. M. Luton, Eva L. Pickard, R. H. Hannah, W. C. Mauerhan, F. K. Day, R. M. Fay, Alice D. Berger, Walter W. Mickle, Jacob S. Swindler, Alice A. Doane, Louisa P. Henderson, Arthur R. Marson, Chas. F. Mohnike, George Bauer, Elizabeth M. McCulloch, Carl Schmelzer, Chas. P. Taft, Reba D. Osborn, W. E. Case, J. J. Schund, W. C. Brumagin, Carl W. Martin, H. E. Carner, Frank Meier, E. E. Squier, Maria L. Montandon, W. C. Bullard, John Eells, J. M. Blockinger, R. W. Paulus, Frederick Meier, C. A. Clough, John C. Craft, P. H. Krick.

More Delta Suits

Two more actions against the Delta Land & Water Company have been brought in this county. A number have recently been started in Los Angeles, one purpose being to get the actions under way before the Delta company withdrew from business in this state. The plaintiffs in the new actions here are Simon P. Hays, who asks for judgment for $3000, and William F. Knowlton, who asks for $1150. Each alleges that he bought land near Milford, Utah, under misrepresentation.

Final Decree Given

A final decree of divorce was given this morning to Rosie A. Whippo against Harry T. Whippo.

Found Guilty

Juan Ramirez of Delhi was found guilty of second degree burglary, and will be sentenced by Judge Thomas tomorrow morning. It is alleged that Ramirez and two other Mexicans robbed J. C. Biggs' home at Delhi.

Answer Filed

An answer was filed today by Attorneys Williams & Rutan in the action brought by A. J. Visel, W. F. Lutz and H. D. Meyer against Cornelius Echenique for $5500 damages. The plaintiffs owned a ranch in San Juan canyon. They alleged that a dam thrown up by Echenique turned the current of the creek so that it washed away several acres of walnut orchard. The defense enters denial that the creek has a defined channel. It alleges that the plaintiffs have disposed of the property, and cannot get judgment.

For Administration

J. Belle Preston has petitioned for letters of administration upon the estate of her mother, Lillie E. Hall, who died on Nov. 9. The estate, valued at $10,000, will go to the two daughters, Mrs. Preston and Miss Florence Hall. F. C. Drumm is attorney for the petitioner.

Dismissal Is Entered In Action
Accusing Mrs. Norris
Of Felony

After proving to the satisfaction of Justice Cox that she owned the furniture she was accused of stealing, Mrs. Frances Norris of Los Alamitos was acquitted of a charge of felony. The accusation was brought by Grant McMullen, who stated that he bought a rooming house and furniture at Los Alamitos, and afterward leased it to Mrs. Norris. When Mrs. Norris moved away she took all of the furniture with her.

With her own evidence and the evidence of others, Mrs. Norris showed that she bought and paid for all of the furniture she took away. The testimony showed that McMullen was so little acquainted with his furniture that he could not identify it if he saw going on at Newport Beach. Someone has been going to cottages that have copper screens, and has been cutting out the screens. City Marshal Porter has arrested George Field upon a charge of being responsible for the theft of at least one screen, a charge that Field denies. The man's trial is set for Nov. 24.

Juan Ramirez of Delhi was found guilty of second degree burglary, and will be sentenced by Judge Thomas tomorrow morning. It is alleged that Ramirez and two other Mexicans robbed J. C. Biggs' home at Delhi.

Answer Filed

An answer was filed today by Attorneys Williams & Ruten in the action brought by A. J. Visel, W. F. Lutz and H. D. Meyer against Cornelius Echenique for $5500 damages. The plaintiffs owned a ranch in San Juan canyon. Echenique turned the current of the creek so that it washed away several acres of walnut orchard. The defense enters denial that the creek has a defined channel. It alleges that the plaintiffs have disposed of the property, and cannot get judgment.

IN THE JUSTICE COURT WOMAN PROVES SHE OWNED FURNITURE

Of Felony

After proving to the satisfaction of Justice Cox that she owned the furniture she was accused of stealing, Mrs. Frances Norris of Los Alamitos was acquitted of a charge of felony. The accusation was brought by Grant McMullen, who stated that he bought a rooming house and furniture at Los Alamitos, and afterward leased it to Mrs. Norris. When Mrs. Norris moved away she took all of the furniture with her.

With her own evidence and the evidence of others, Mrs. Norris showed that she bought and paid for all of the furniture she took away. The testimony showed that McMullen was so little acquainted with his furniture that he could not identify it if he saw it.

BRAZIL TO FORM MILLION ARMY UNDER DRAFT LEGISLATION

Compulsory Military Service Law Passed In 1908 Effective December 1

BY H. B. ROBERTSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 17.—"Preparedness," as a theory, is no longer
open to discussion in Brazil. The big southern republic has gone in for "militarism," and she has gone in
with enthusiasm.

Compulsory military service, established by a law passed by the congress
of 1908, goes into effect December 1,
this year, and if the results approach
the prediction of the law's sponsors, a million Brazilian men will be trained in arms and maneuvers within the

THIS photograph of soldiers whose legs were shot off in the war was taken in London. In time they will be given mechanical legs and will abandon their crutches. The British surgeons have followed the general policy of cutting off limbs which seemed to them could not be saved. In France a much different method has been pursued. There every effort has been made to preserve limbs of wounded soldiers.

WOMAN GIVEN TWO DAYS

To Make Up Her Mind for Surgical Operation. She Refused; Cured by Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"One year ago I was very sick and I suffered with pains
in my side and back until I nearly went crazy. I went to different doctors and they all said I had female trouble and would not get any relief until I would be operated on. I had suffered for four years before this time, but I kept getting worse the more medicine I took. Every month since I was a young girl I had suffered with cramps in my sides at periods and was never regular. I saw your advertisement in the newspaper and the picture of a woman who had been saved from an operation and this picture was impressed on my mind. The doctor had given me only two more days to make up my mind so I sent my husband to the drug store at once for a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and believe me, I only took four doses before I felt a change and when I had finished the third bottle I was cured and never felt better. I grant you the privilege to publish my letter and am only too glad to let other women know of my
cure."—Mrs. THOS. MCGONIGAL, 3432
Hartville Street, Phila., Pa.

next ten years. All able bodied men between the ages of 21 and 44 years
are subject to the call to arms, when called they must join the colors or be liable to punishment as deserters.

Short Time Service
By a scheme of short time service favors advanced to those who wish to escape the two years' service in the active army, however, the greater part of Brazil's army probably will be composed of "volunteers." More than 50,000 volunteers enlisted for the short service between August 1st and September 30th, this year, and it is probable that this number will be doubled before December 1, when ten per cent
of those who did not volunteer will be drawn by lot for compulsory service. The volunteer and drawing by lot process will be repeated each year.

The men of the new army will be divided according to their ages, those between the ages of 21 and 30 going into the first line of the active army
and its reserve, between 30 and 37
into the second line and its reserve,
and between 37 and 44 into the third line and its reserve or the national guard. After nine years in the active army the men are retired to the reserve.

Provide Three Classes
The volunteers are classified according to how they wish to serve, for the two years' service, for the annual maneuvers and training camp, or for training in schools and in shooting clubs under the instruction of army officers. The two latter classes must continue their training until such times as they are able to pass an army requirements examination. Those who train in the third class are not compelled to leave their business or occupation as they are permitted to drill on Sundays, holidays and out of work hours.

Hundreds of colleges, schools, athletic clubs and other organizations of men are taking advantage of the third class volunteer rights and are training under the instruction of officers surnished by the minister of war to these schools, clubs and organizations.

Maneuver Volunteers
Other young men are volunteering for the annual maneuvers and training camps, the two months a year being credited against their compulsory service, and at the same time taking the place of "vacations."

The two years' straight active army service is being sought by the young men between the ages of 17 (if they have their parents' or guardians' consent) and 21, as a matter of "having it over with."

The naval reserve will be recruited along the same lines—by volunteers and by compulsory service. The officers and men employed on the Lloyd Brazilero Steamship line which is government owned, and on several coasting fleets which operate under
the government concession, are being trained aboard their ships by regular navy officers and besides must take a training cruise on a battleship or training ship, each year. The volunteers for the naval reserve enjoy the same privileges as those in the army.

Poet Responsible
Perhaps the strangest feature of Brazil's adoption of the compulsory service lies in the fact that the man who is chiefly responsible for the
enactment is Sr. Olavo Bilac, Brazil's greatest living poet.

Besides being the greatest poet,
Olavo Bilac is one of Brazil's greatest patriots and his campaign was fought with a double purpose—his country's defense and his country's education.
Eighty per cent of Brazil's population is illiterate. To pass the military requirements examination the volunteer or "drawn" soldier must be able to read and write. Thus Olavo Bilac benefited his country by obtaining
"compulsory and volunteer education."

The average Brazilian is intensely patriotic if one may judge from externals. Every man takes off his hat
when the national anthem is being played or sung and he leaps to his feet
to do it. He tips his hat to his country's flag and he honors the men who defend it. His record of the past in his country's service is a proud record
and the wars of Brazil's history are epics of heroism and sacrifice.

"Progress and Order"

"Progress and Order" is the motto
printed in gold on Brazil's green flag.
In ten years a million men will be giving the military salute to "Progress and Order" and will be trained to defend its principles. In that time Brazil in proportion to its population probably will be among the best if not the best "prepared" American nation.

ELKS OF ANAHEIM SEEKING LODGE FIND POPULATION IS 5187

ANAHEIM, Nov. 17.—The census taken by the Elks of Anaheim has been completed and states the population of Anaheim to be 5187. This includes a few Chinese, Japanese, and others. The census was completed yesterday by M. L. Elden and much good feeling prevails among the local Elks to know that an Elk lodge may be established here. The Elks will not establish a lodge in a city of less than 5000. Since the census, doubt upon the basis of population is over with,
and effort to get permission to start

ORANGE CROP IS RIPENING FOR EARLY PICK

San Bernardino County Is Expecting to Get $15,000,-

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 17.—
Within ten days the San Bernardino
County Fruit Exchange will begin shipping oranges for the Christmas demand in eastern markets, the first fruit handled by the exchange to be from the groves at Hemet.

The orange season in the San Bernardino Valley is two weeks ahead of last year and associations in Highland,
Redlands, Rialto, Highgrove, Colton,
Fontana and Bloomington expect to
ship several carloads before December
15, when the Christmas pool will close.
According to reports from orange growers about the valley the recent north wind did little damage to the fruit except in a few very exposed places. The system of windbreaks
in the groves west of this city practically eliminates all damage to the oranges either from sand cutting or being knocked from the trees.

A normal crop for the first time in four years, since the freeze, is expected by citrus growers. This crop with the addition of several hundred acres of young trees that will come into bearing for the first time will give the San Bernardino county groves a production of close to 15,000 carloads, which will be worth about $15,000,000
if prices hold up.

San Bernardino county has the largest acreage in oranges, a large part of which, however, is in young trees, not yet bearing, and one-third of the oranges grown in California
come from the groves of this county.

Pickers are now in the groves in various parts of the county with orders to use great care in the selection of the fruit that will be shipped for Christmas. Only the most highly colored oranges will be taken from the trees and this means that only mature fruit will be picked at this time.
It is believed that the oranges will ripen enough in the next two weeks to pass the eight-to-one test, which San Bernardino county officials recently ordered for all fruit shipped out of the county.

The shippers expect no car, shortage during the movement of the Christmas shipments, but the famine in other freight cars at present may extend to the refrigerator cars after the first of the year, when picking and shipping will start in earnest.

As long as the war continues across the seas, growers expect good prices to prevail in the East, for the war is keeping oranges and lemons
from Southern Europe out of the eastern markets, which otherwise are unprotected under the present administration.

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 16.—The date
when the mines in the Republic shall
of non-operation has been extended to

mines which had been idle for two months from September 14, the date when the forfeiture decree went into effect.

BRAZIL TO FORM MILLION ARMY UNDER DRAFT LEGISLATION

Law Passed In 1908 Effective December 1

BY H. B. ROBERTSON
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
RIO DE JANEIRO, Nov. 17.—"Preparedness," as a theory, is no longer
open to discussion in Brazil. The big southern republic has gone in for
"militarism," and she has gone in
with enthusiasm.

Compulsory military service, established by a law passed by the congress
of 1908, goes into effect December 1,
this year, and if the results approach
the prediction of the law's sponsors, a
in arms and maneuvers within the

THIS photograph of soldiers whose legs were shot off in the war was taken in London. In time they will be given mechanical legs and will abandon their crutches. The British surgeons have followed the general policy of cutting off limbs which seemed to them could not be saved. In France a much different method has been pursued. There every effort has been made to preserve limbs of wounded soldiers.

WOMAN GIVEN TWO DAYS

To Make Up Her Mind for Surgical Operation. She Refused; Cured by Lydia E.
Pinkham's Vegetable
Compound.

Philadelphia, Pa.—"One year ago I was very sick and I suffered with pains
in my side and back
until I nearly went crazy. I went to different doctors and they all said I had female trouble and would not get any relief until I would be operated on. I had suffered for four years before this time, but I kept getting worse the more medicine I took. Every month since I was a young girl I had suffered with cramps in my sides at periods and was never regular. I saw your advertisement in the newspaper and the picture
of a woman who had been saved from
an operation and this picture was impressed on my mind. The doctor had given me only two more days to make
drug store at once for a bottle of Lydia
E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and believe me, I only took four doses before I felt a change and when I had finished the third bottle I was cured and never felt better. I grant you the privilege to publish my letter and am only
cure."—Mrs. THOS. MCGONIGAL, 3422
Hartville Street, Phila., Pa.

next ten years. All able bodied men
between the ages of 21 and 44 years
are subject to the call to arms, when called they must join the colors or be

Short Time Service

By a scheme of short time service
favors advanced to those who wish
to escape the two years' service in the active army, however, the greater part of Brazil's army probably will be composed of "volunteers." More than 50,000 volunteers enlisted for the short service between August 1st and September 30th, this year, and it is probable that this number will be doubled before December 1, when ten per cent
of those who did not volunteer will be drawn by lot for compulsory service.
The volunteer and drawing by lot process will be repeated each year.

The men of the new army will be divided according to their ages, those between the ages of 21 and 30 going into the first line of the active army
and its reserve, between 30 and 37
into the second line and its reserve,
and between 37 and 44 into the third
line and its reserve or the national guard. After nine years in the active army the men are retired to the reserve.

Provide Three Classes

The volunteers are classed according to how they wish to serve, for the
two years' service, for the annual maneuvers and training camp, or for training in schools and in shooting
clubs under the instruction of army officers. The two latter classes must continue their training until such
times as they are able to pass an army examination. Those who train in the third class are not compelled to leave their business or occupation as they are permitted to drill on Sundays, holidays and out of work hours.

Hundreds of colleges, schools, athletic clubs and other organizations of
men are taking advantage of the third
class volunteer rights and are training
under the instruction of officers furnished by the minister of war to these

Maneuver Volunteers

Other young men are volunteering
for the annual maneuvers and training camps, the two months a year being
credited against their compulsory service, and at the same time taking the place of "vacations."

The two years' straight active army
service is being sought by the young men between the ages of 17 (if they have their parents' or guardians' consent) and 21, as a matter of "having it
over with."

The naval reserve will be recruited
along the same lines—by volunteers
and by compulsory service. The officers and men employed on the Lloyd Brazilero Steamship line which is government owned, and on several coasting fleets which operate under
the government concession, are being trained aboard their ships by regular navy officers and besides must take a training cruise on a battleship or training ship, each year. The volunteers for the naval reserve enjoy the

Poet Responsible

Perhaps the strangest feature of Brazil's adoption of the compulsory
service lies in the fact that the man
who is chiefly responsible for the
enactment is Sr. Olavo Bilac, Brazil's greatest living poet.

Besides being the greatest poet,
Olavo Bilac is one of Brazil's greatest patriots and his campaign was fought
with a double purpose—his country's defense and his country's education.
Eighty per cent of Brazil's population
is illiterate. To pass the military requirements examination the volunteer
or "drawn" soldier must be able to read and write. Thus Olavo Bilac benefited his country by obtaining
"compulsory and volunteer education."

The average Brazilian is intensely
patriotic if one may judge from externals. Every man takes off his hat
when the national anthem is being played or sung and he leaps to his feet
to do it. He tips his hat to his country's flag and he honors the men who defend it. His record of the past in his country's service is a proud record
and the wars of Brazil's history are
epics of heroism and sacrifice.

"Progress and Order"

"Progress and Order" is the motto
printed in gold on Brazil's green flag.
In ten years a million men will be giving the military salute to "Progress and Order" and will be trained to defend its principles. In that time Brazil in proportion to its population probably will be among the best if not the best "prepared" American nation.

ELKS OF ANAHEIM SEEKING LODGE FIND POPULATION IS 5187

ANAHEIM, Nov. 17.—The census
taken by the Elks of Anaheim has been completed and states the population of Anaheim to be 5187. This includes a few Chinese, Japanese, and others. The census was completed yesterday by M. L. Elden and much good feeling prevails among the local Elks to know that an Elk lodge may be established here. The Elks will not establish a lodge in a city of less than 5000. Since the census, doubt upon
the basis of population is over with,
and effort to get permission to start

ORANGE CROP IS RIPENING FOR EARLY PICK

San Bernardino County Is Expecting to Get $15,000,- 000 For Fruit

SAN BERNARDINO, Nov. 17.—
Within ten days the San Bernardino
County Fruit Exchange will begin
shipping oranges for the Christmas
demand in eastern markets, the first fruit hauled by the exchange to be
from the groves at Hemet.

The orange season in the San Bernardino Valley is two weeks ahead of last year and associations in Highland,
Redlands, Rialto, Highgrove, Colton,
Fontana and Bloomington expect to
ship several carloads before December
15, when the Christmas pool will close.

According to reports from orange growers about the valley the recent north wind did little damage to the fruit except in a few very exposed
places. The system of windbreaks
in the groves west of this city practically eliminates all damage to the oranges either from sand cutting or being knocked from the trees.

A normal crop for the first time in
four years, since the freeze, is expected by citrus growers. This crop
with the addition of several hundred acres of young trees that will come into bearing for the first time will give the San Bernardino county groves a production of close to 15,000 carloads,
which will be worth about $15,000,000
if prices hold up.

San Bernardino county has the largest acreage in oranges, a large part of which, however, is in young
trees, not yet bearing, and one-third of the oranges grown in California
come from the groves of this county.

Pickers are now in the groves in various parts of the county with orders to use great care in the selection of the fruit that will be shipped for Christmas. Only the most highly colored oranges will be taken from the trees and this means that only mature fruit will be picked at this time.
It is believed that the oranges will ripen enough in the next two weeks to pass the eight-to-one test, which San Bernardino county officials recently ordered for all fruit shipped out of the county.

The shippers expect no car, shortage during the movement of the Christmas shipments, but the families in other freight cars at present may extend to the refrigerator cars after
the first of the year, when picking and
shipping will start in earnest.

As long as the war continues
across the seas, growers expect good
prices to prevail in the East, for the war is keeping oranges and lemons
from Southern Europe out of the eastern markets, which otherwise are unprotected under the present administration.

FORFEIT DECREE ON MEX. MINES EXTENDED

MEXICO CITY, Nov. 16.—The date
when the mines in the republic shall become subject to forfeiture because
of non-operation has been extended to February 14, in cases where conditions have prevented operation. Yesterday was the date set for the forfeiture of mines which had been idle for two months from September 14, the date
when the forfeiture decree went into effect.

FEATURE STORY
FOR THIS DAY
BY UNITED

BY CHARLES P. STEWART
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Oct. 20 (by mail).—A proposition is before the Argentine congress to change the Buenos Aires form of government.

Hitherto the city has had a commission government like Washington. The people are tired, however, of having their affairs regulated for them by outsiders. They point out that this management has resulted in piling up one of the largest municipal debts, considering the community's size, in the world. It is also remarked that the attempt to economize, by the unauthorized withholding of percentages of the city employees' wages, is resulting in a tiresome series of strikes by the scavengers, grave dig-

Many a "Grouch"
Could Be Glad

Too often a person's disposition is blamed, when it is his digestion that is at fault. Some time when the world looks blue and dingy, when you feel an irresistible impulse to snap and snarl, when you feel dull and gloomy, stuffed up and uncomfortable—with a rumbling headache, bilious stomach, furred tongue—then take a Foley Cathartic Tablet.

If your bowels are sluggish, if you sometimes are clogged with a decomposing poisonous mass, if you are not eliminating properly, this little tablet will afford prompt, sure and safe relief without griping, pain, nausea or costive effect.

Foley Cathartic Tablets are a genuinely wholesome physic—an ideal laxative. They keep the system fit and free of poisons, and ready to resist disease. Stout people say they have no equal for bringing a light and free feeling.

The situation is more irritating from a numerical standpoint than the one at Washington, where a national population of about 100,000,000 dictates arbitrarily to a city of about 350,000, while in Argentina, a total population of approximately 7,000,000 makes local regulations for a capital with a population exceeding 1,500,000.

The new plan, if adopted, will abolish the existing commission in favor of a municipal council, to be elected by the citizens.

A unique feature of the proposal is that it confers the municipal franchise upon foreigners more than 18 years old who have lived in Buenos Aires more than two years if they are married to Argentine children or pay taxes to a specific amount. The plan even makes them eligible to councilorships above the age of twenty-five.

Furthermore, following the example of the national election law, the idea is to make the exercise of the franchise obligatory.

There is considerable criticism of this clause, disregard of the national compulsory voting law, which provides a penalty of ten pesos or a term of imprisonment upon eligibles who neglect to cast their ballots, having proved so general that the jails would not have held the offenders if they had been prosecuted.

ANN PENNINGTON, FAMOUS PLAYERS STAR IN PARAMOUNT PICTURES.

If we were simply to caption this picture "A scene from Ann Pennington's next Famous Players-Paramount picture, 'The Rainbow Princess,'" it might lead to a serious case of mistaken identity. The eye traveling to the most conspicuous object first, one might be deceived as to which of the feminine figures is that of the star. FEATURE STORY
FOR THIS DAY
BY UNITED

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
BUENOS AIRES, Argentina, Oct. 20 (by mail)—A proposition is before the Argentine congress to change the Buenos Aires form of government.

Hitherto the city has had a commission government like Washington. The people are tired, however, of having their affairs regulated for them by outsiders. They point out that this management has resulted in piling up one of the largest municipal debts, considering the community's size, in the world. It is also remarked that the attempt to economize, by the unauthorized withholding of percentages of the city employees' wages, is resulting in a tiresome series of strikes by the scavengers, grave dig-

Many a "Grouch"
Could Be Glad

Too often a person's disposition is blamed, when it is his digestion that is at fault. Some time when the world looks blue and dinky, when you feel an irresistible impulse to snap and snarl, when you feel dull and gloomy, stuffed up and uncomfortable—with a morose headache, bilious stomach, furred tongue—then take a Foley Cathartic Tablet.

If your bowels are sluggish, if your intestines are clogged with a decomposing poisonous mass, if you are not eliminating properly, this little tablet will afford prompt, sure and safe relief without griping, pain, nausea or coactive effects.

Foley Cathartic Tablets are a genuinely wholesome physic—an ideal laxative. They keep the system fit and fine, purged of poisons, and ready to resist disease. Stout people say they have no equal for bringing a light and free feeling.

and get a clear vision of the possibilities of Fruit and Nut growing without irrigation in the Templeton-Paso Robles district—a swell place for a home—money making opportunities undreamed of a few years back, a combination of desirable conditions possessed by no other locality in the state, these are reasons why so many men from Orange county and other Southern California points are investing there.

10 acre lots, best orchard zone, near town, fine soil for almonds, walnuts, pears or prunes—all money makers—$90.00 to $175.00 per acre.

Here are two good ones, combinations suitable for dairying, hog raising and fruit growing, 1/2 mile from high school.

30 acres, 1/2 in alfalfa, 1/2 in fine pear, prune or walnut land, $200.00 per acre.

The situation is more irritating from a numerical standpoint than the one at Washington, where a national population of about 100,000,000 dictates arbitrarily to a city of about 350,000, while in Argentina, a total population of approximately 7,000,000 makes local regulations for a capital with a population exceeding 1,500,000.

The new plan, if adopted, will abolish the existing commission in favor of a municipal council, to be elected by the citizens.

A unique feature of the proposal is that it confers the municipal franchise upon foreigners more than 18 years old who have lived in Buenos Aires more than two years if they are married to Argentine children or pay taxes to a specific amount. The plan even makes them eligible to councilorships above the age of twenty-five.

Furthermore, following the example of the national election law, the idea is to make the exercise of the franchise obligatory.

There is considerable criticism of this clause, disregard of the national compulsory voting law, which provides a penalty of ten pesos or a term of imprisonment upon eligibles who neglect to cast their ballots, having proved so general that the jails would not have held the offenders if they had been prosecuted.

LOS ANGELES PRODUCE MARKET
Cheese prices are soaring. Yesterday dealers raised all grades from 3 to 5 cents a pound, and they state that this is only the forerunner of even greater advances in the near future.

The heavy call for California vegetables has resulted in an advance in the price of cucumbers and tomatoes. The Middle West and the East are drawing more heavily than ever before upon this state for their vegetables. This is explained to some extent by the fact that the volume of vegetables that is coming out of Mexico is exceedingly meager, due to the chaotic condition of that country. This has forced an increased strain on the products of the Golden State.

Trading was rather quiet at Thursday's session of the Produce Exchange, although prices were very strong. From all indications both eggs and butter will advance again.

RIO GRANDE NOT SILVERY NOR GRAND. GUARDS ON LINE FIND

'Educational Advantages' Not So Plentiful As Might Seem For Militiamen

BY WEBB MILLER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 17.—In enumerating the beneficial results of the mobilization of national guardsmen upon the border someone has dwelt upon the educational advantages.

"Every one of the hundred-odd thousand militiamen," they say, "will go back to his home with a clearer knowledge of a new section of our country and an understanding of the Mexican situation."

So as soon as the tents are up and he can get "town leave" the newly arrived guardsman hurries down to learn all he can about the Mexicans and the "situation," see the famous International bridge and catch a glimpse of the turbulent country at the other end of it. It is a thrilling experience — if the "guardie" has imagination. The soldiers of the patrol furnish the educational features.

Bridge Disappoints
At first sight the bridge is a bit disappointing. It is a rickety wooden affair. And the "silvery Rio Grande" mentioned frequently in the popular songs is a distinct shock. It is neither silvery nor grand. At this season of the year it is a mere thread of dirty water meandering over the sandy river bed. Usually a dozen naked Mexican children are attempting to get wet or dirtier.

"Huh," sneered a Pittsburg guardsman, "it isn't nearly as dirty as our river. With two blotters I could blot up their dingy river."

It is significant after the first sight of the stream, the newcomers insist upon calling it "their river."

After gazing silently at the clusters of drab adobe huts sprawling up the sides of the barren mountain back of the town, the newcomer has a lot of questions to ask. This is where the education begins.

How About Bandits?
"Say, pard, are there many bandits over there?"

The nonchalant militiaman on patrol regards the seeker-after-knowledge with scant interest. He is a veteran of the border service. These "rooks" annoy him. He has been on the border three months.

"Ain't it kinda dangerous doin' guard duty right across from 'em," pursues the undaunted seeker-after-knowledge.

Sinister Figures
But at the other end of the bridge are several sinister dark-faced figures fondling Mausers. They are leaning against the railings, each with a two-bushel hat pulled over his eyes. They are the Carranzistas customs guard. When it is time for them to go off duty someone will awaken them.

"Oh, yes." The veteran casts a sharp look at the opposite bank. "We watch 'em pretty close. They's usually not much doin' until after dark."

The newcomer is visibly impressed. He envies the hardened veteran his careless demeanor in the face of danger.

"What are them red horse blankets they wear around their shoulders?"

The "rook's" thirst for information is insatiable.

"Tortillas"
"Them?" Oh, they call 'em tortillas. Of course the rook doesn't know now that a tortilla is a pancake. But he'll learn border ways fast enough. Within a month he will be tutoring some other "rook" and satisfying his thirst for knowledge.

It's a great life, this border service, any way you take it—and there are the educational advantages.

SPEEDERS THROW DICE, COURT FINES BOTH

WELLS, N. Y.—After Thomas Nelson of Lake Oswanna was fined $10 for speeding in an automobile, Policeman McDonald called the attention of Judge Wesson to the defendant shaking dice with Albert Whittenore, who rode with him when he was arrested. When rebuked by the court Nelson told the judge he decided to "shake to see who'd put up the ten."

"You'll each put up ten," rejoined the judge.

RIO GRANDE NOT SILVERY OR GRAND. GUARDS ON LINE FIND

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
EL PASO, Tex., Nov. 17.—In enumerating the beneficial results of the mobilization of national guardsmen upon the border someone has dwelt upon the educational advantages.

"Every one of the hundred-odd thousand militiamen," they say, "will go back to his home with a clearer knowledge of a new section of our country and an understanding of the Mexican situation."

So as soon as the tents are up and he can get "town leave" the newly arrived guardsman hurries down to learn all he can about the Mexicans and the "situation," see the famous international bridge and catch a glimpse of the turbulent country at the other end of it. It is a thrilling experience—if the "guardie" has imagination. The soldiers of the patrol furnish the educational features.

Bridge Disappoints
At first sight the bridge is a bit disappointing. It is a rickety wooden affair. And the "silvery Rio Grande" mentioned frequently in the popular songs is a distinct shock. It is neither silvery nor grand. At this season of the year it is a mere thread of dirty water meandering over the sandy river bed. Usually a dozen naked Mexican children are attempting to get wet or drier.

"Huh," sneered a Pittsburg guardman. "It isn't nearly as dirty as our river. With two blotters I could blot up their dingy river."

It is significant after the first sight of the stream, the newcomers insist upon calling it "their river."

After gazing silently at the clusters of drab adobe huts sprawling up the sides of the barren mountain back of the town, the newcomer has a lot of questions to ask. This is where the education begins.

How About Bandits?

The nonchalant militiaman on patrol regards the seeker-after-knowledge with scant interest. He is a veteran of the border service. These "rooks" annoy him. He has been on the border three months.

Sinister Figures

But at the other end of the bridge are several sinister dark-faced figures fondling Mausers. They are leaning against the railings, each with a two-bushel hat pulled over his eyes. They are the Carranzistas customs guard. When it is time for them to go off duty someone will awaken them.

"Oh, yes." The veteran casts a sharp look at the opposite bank. "We watch 'em pretty close. They's usually not much doin' until after dark."

The newcomer is visibly impressed. He envies the hardened veteran his careless demeanor in the face of danger.

"What are them red horse blankets they wear around their shoulders?" the "rook's" thirst for information is insatiable.

"Tortillas"

"Them?" Oh, they call 'em tortillas. Of course the rook doesn't know now that a tortilla is a pancake. But he'll learn border ways fast enough. Within a month he will be tutoring some other "rook" and satisfying his thirst for knowledge.

SPEEDERS THROW DICE, COURT FINES BOTH

WELLS, N. Y.—After Thomas Nelson of Lake Oswegawanna was fined $10 for speeding in an automobile, Police-man McDonald called the attention of Judge Wesson to the defendant shaking dice with Albert Whittemore, who rode with him when he was arrested. When rebuked by the court Nelson told the judge they decided to "shake to see who'd put up ten." "You'll each put up ten," rejoined the judge.
